The Night Before Christmas
(Clement Clarke Moore)

Tw'as the night before Christmas, when all through the house
Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse.
The stockings were hung by the chimney with care,
In hopes that St Nicholas soon would be there.
The children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of sugar-plums danced in their heads.
And mamma in her 'kerchief, and I in my cap,
Had just settled our brains for a long winter's nap.
When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter,
I sprang from the bed to see what was the matter.
Away to the window I flew like a flash,
Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash.
The moon on the breast of the new-fallen snow,
Gave a lustre of midday to objects below,
When what to my wondering eyes did appear,
But a miniature sleigh and eight tiny rein-deer.

A Tale of Two Cities
(Charles Dickens)

was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair, w rything before us, we had nothing before us, we were all going direct to Heaven, we w fishes, that things in general were settled for ever.

Monologues With Christmas Message:

Dramatic Monologue Glennis Byron, 2014-05-01 The dramatic monologue is traditionally associated with Victorian poets such as Robert Browning and Alfred Tennyson and is generally considered to have disappeared with the onset of modernism in the twentieth century Glennis Byron unravels its history and argues that contrary to belief the monologue remains popular to this day This far reaching and neatly structured volume explores the origins of the monologue and presents a history of definitions of the term considers the monologue as a form of social critique explores issues at play in our understanding of the genre such as subjectivity gender and politics traces the development of the genre through to the present day Taking as example the increasingly politicized nature of contemporary poetry the author clearly and succinctly presents an account of the monologue s growing popularity over the past twenty years

A Study of the Dramatic Monologue in American and Continental Literature Ina Beth Sessions, 1933 Staging Separate Spheres Susanne Auflitsch, 2006 During the first half of the 20th century approximately 10 000 short plays were written in the United States This book examines twenty one act plays by authors such as Mary Shaw Susan Glaspell and Charlotte Perkins Gilman who wrote from such diverse backgrounds as women s clubs art theaters or commercial theaters This study argues that the plays share a structural organization along spatial dichotomies of theatrical space within and theatrical space without While some writers use the underlying structure of separate spheres and organize place and space in order to promote a broader definition of domesticity the spatial configurations in other plays are read as appropriations affirmations negotiations subversions or transgressions of the separate spheres dichotomy Substantial bibliographies documenting the productivity of the one act genre supplement this study

When Lucindy Goes to Town Mary Moncure Parker, 1913 The Dramatic Monologue Elisabeth A. Howe, 1996 In The Dramatic Monologue Elisabeth A Howe defines the characteristics of the subject as a genre clearly differentiating it from the lyric poem One feature she discusses is the double voice of the dramatic monologue the reader hears simultaneously the voices of the poet and the speaker This dialogical effect distinguishes the dramatic monologue both from lyric poetry and from narrative poems written in the first person The use of a persona allows the poet to distance himself or herself from the poem Howe investigates the origins of the dramatic monologue before examining poems by Browning and Tennyson both masters of the form and both largely responsible for its popularity with late nineteenth century readers and poets She offers close readings of Browning s The Bishop Orders His Tomb at Saint Praxed s Church and Tennyson s Tithonus Later chapters include detailed analyses of dramatic monologues by twentieth century poets including Ezra Pound s Marvail T S Eliot s Portrait of a Lady and poems by Robert Frost Randall Jarrell and the contemporary poet Richard Howard Elevating the Drama Marian Bowlan,1912 The Ladies' Home Journal Edward William Bok,1915 Index to Dramatic Readings Agnes K.
