Moral Panics Over Contemporary Children And Youth:

Moral Panics Over Contemporary Children and Youth Charles Krinsky, 2008 A truly international collection this volume features new global research examining the cultural construction of youth through the dissemination of moral panics This is the first book to make the most of the latest contemporary research to examine this The Ashgate Research Companion to Moral Panics Dr Charles Krinsky, 2013-02-28 The Ashgate Research Companion to Moral Panics offers a comprehensive assemblage of cutting edge critical and theoretical perspectives on the concept of moral panic All chapters represent original research by many of the most influential theorists and researchers now working in the area of moral panic including Nachman Ben Yehuda and Erich Goode Joel Best Chas Critcher Mary deYoung Alan Hunt Toby Miller Willem Schinkel Kenneth Thompson Sheldon Ungar and Grazyna Zajdow The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009

Discourses of Anxiety over Childhood and Youth across Cultures Liza Tsaliki, Despina Chronaki, 2020-07-15 This book revolves around neoliberal notions governing children and youth a trend that permeates and dominates contemporary perceptions of the young In fact given how the disciplinary power of neoliberalism swiftly becomes a common conceptual currency across national and cultural borders discussing the way in which neoliberal self governance permeates the cultures of childhood and youth is even more pertinent This is followed by research on media discourses of children and their cultural practices in Norway Germany Austria and Switzerland Serbia Greece and the US

Understanding Youth and Crime Sheila Brown, 1998 Youth has been a focus of the sociologies of deviance popular culture and criminology The text reassesses the growing body of writing and research about crime and young people It provides a critical introduction to the study of youth crime and punishment of the social construction of youth crime and punishment an examination of developments in policy and practice since the 1970s and an assessment of new trends in research and theory It offers a critical treatment of the marginalization of young people as spectacular and deviant and calls for a criminology that listens to youth The Sociology of Education in Canada Terry Wotherspoon, 2009 This book offers a well rounded introduction to the sociological understanding of education analyzing key debates and issues with references to critical research and theories of education In this concise critical introduction Dr Terry Wotherspoon covers all aspects of the sociology of education in Canada including issues such as the sociology of teaching gender and race feminism and globalization The Sociology of Education in Canada is an appropriate core text for one semester third year sociology courses given its coverage of the history of the education system in Canada through to present day focus on theory and presentation of research recent data and perspectives Understanding Contemporary Gangs in America Rebecca D. Petersen, 2004 This unique book provides readers with a comprehensive and contemporary perspective on gangs in America Its current articles written by national experts in the field contain a variety of diverse viewpoints and contribute to a well rounded understanding of gangs and their broad societal implications KEY TOPICS A seven part organization covers 1 understanding and defining gangs 2 gender issues 3 race and ethnicity 4 gangs in prisons and schools 5 violence and drugs 6 gang victimization and 7 gang prevention and intervention For law enforcement police court personnel prosecutors public defenders attorneys lawyers judges prison correction staff social workers educators and government workers Youth, Crime & the Media National Clearinghouse for Youth Studies, Hobart, Tasmania (Australia).,1997 Youth crime and the media media representation of and reaction to young people in relation to law and order American Journal of Play ,2008

Youth in Society Jeremy Roche,Stanley Tucker,1997-02-18 This book brings together a series of readings to encourage critical reflection and thought about how young people s lives and priorities are changing and becoming more diverse Aimed at those involved in social work criminal justice education Youth Crime and Juvenile Justice: Children's rights and state responsibilities Barry Goldson,John Muncie,2009 This three volume set of original readings is designed to reveal how and why children and young people have been repeatedly the subject of adult concern censure and intervention It conceptualises notions of childhood youth and adolescence whilst also tracing the complex history of adult intervention and juvenile justice This collection is particularly timely not only because of persistent concerns over out of control youth but also because of an apparent hardening of adult reactions in many jurisdictions Youth justice Contemporary Culture and Everyday Life Elizabeth Bortolaia Silva,Tony Bennett,2004 This book focuses on the changing practices and meanings of daily living to explore and understand how the current fluidity of everyday life practices relates to performing gender sexuality caring racializing ageing work and other significant axes of everyday situations Seeing Ourselves : Classic, Contemporary, and Cross-cultural Readings in Sociology Nijole Vaicaitis Benokraitis,John J. Macionis,Bruce Ravelli,2006-03

The Legacy of School for Aboriginal People Bernard Schissel,Terry Wotherspoon,2003 Education is expected to assist students in the development of their personal identities and the achievement of social and economic success Yet the aspirations of Aboriginal students have too often been thwarted by the very structures that are supposed to help them Combining a research study an extensive review of the literature and an analysis of current trends Schissel and Wotherspoon detail the harm done to Aboriginal children and their families not only in the past when residential schools explicitly set out to eliminate Aboriginal identities but also in more recent years when educational systems designed for the mainstream have relegated First Nations students to the sidelines The authors find hope for the future in four experimental programs from Saskatchewan in which severely stressed Aboriginal young people have found nourishment for their self esteem in educational settings that take into account traditional culture and spiritual teachings as well as academic achievement Interviews with Aboriginal students themselves give additional depth to the author s findings The One Best System? Roy Shuker,1987 Children, Health and the Social Order Berry Mayall,1996 This text considers children s views on health care and their experiences of the home and school as sites for health maintenance restoration and promotion It draws on a number of studies carried out by the author Giving Youth a Voice Christie Barron,2000 Giving youth a voice challenges traditional theories and methods associated with the study of youth violence. It offers a fresh perspective by incorporating into the discourse the voices of youths speaking about their own experiences of the justice system. The book highlights the disjuncture between what is officially known about youths and the reality of their everyday experience and in doing so underscores the ineffectual nature of current corrections programs which are prescribed to deal with youth violence.

Family in Transition Arlene S. Skolnick, Jerome H. Skolnick, 2007 This bestselling reader on families and intimate relationships identifies the most current trends places them in historical context and balances cutting edge scholarship with perennial favorites. The authors who are leading scholars build each new edition from classic literature in a variety of disciplines as well as from the continuing stream of new family scholarship. Contributions provide new insights into family and explore many myths about family life. New to This Edition Twelve of the thirty eight readings are new. A new section Family and the Economy explores some of the structural changes in the economy that have had an impact on family life. New topics include changing family demographics over the course of U.S. history, why gay men and women want to marry, the decline of dating and the rise of hooking up, adoption past and present, how a 24/7 economy affects families, financial pressures on middle class mothers and fathers, gay and lesbian families and the families of prison inmates. Youth Justice Barry Goldson, 1999 The aim of this text is to offer a critical analysis of contemporary policy and practice in relation to children and crime. It provides an integrated edited text combining a critical commentary of contemporary social criminal justice policy with analyses of progressive practice in the UK. It offers coverage of each discrete stage in the processing of child offenders in the criminal justice system. It develops an alternative policy and practice framework drawing on experience from the UK, Europe, the USA, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. The Blackwell Encyclopedia of Sociology: D-E George Ritzer, 2007
