Moral Theology New Directions And Fundamental Issues:

Moral Theology James Keating, 2004 Gathers together some of the top moral theologians to recognize and honour the work of James P Hanigan and to present their own personal visions on the present state and future direction of fundamental moral theology

Keeping Faith in Practice James Sweeney, Gemma Simmonds, David Lonsdale, 2009-12-01 Keeping Faith in Practice is a Roman Catholic reflection on Practical and Pastoral Theology This book presents an exploration of how theology engages with the dimension of practice in the life of the Church and contemporary society and culture It covers the main focal points of a Catholic view of pastoral practical theology

A History of Catholic Moral Theology in the Twentieth Century James F. Keenan, 2010-01-17 This is an historical survey of 20th Century Roman Catholic Theological Ethics also known as moral theology The thesis is that only through historical investigation can we really understand how the most conservative and negative field in Catholic theology at the beginning of the 20th could become by the end of the 20th century the most innovative one The 20th century begins with moral manuals being translated into the vernacular After examining the manuals of Thomas Slater and Henry Davis Keenan then turns to three works and a crowning synthesis of innovation all developed before during and soon after the Second World War The first by Odon Lottin asks whether moral theology is adequately historical Fritz Tillmann asks whether it is adequately biblical and Gerard Gilleman whether it is adequately spiritual Bernard Haering integrates these contributions into his Law of Christ Of course people like Gerald Kelly and John Ford in the US are like a few moralists elsewhere classical gate keepers censoring innovation But with Humanae vitae and successive encyclicals bishops and popes reject the direction of moral theologians At the same time moral theologians like Josef Fuchs ask whether the locus of moral truth is in continuous universal teachings of the magisterium or in the moral judgment of the informed conscience In their move toward a deeper appreciation of their field as forming consciences they turn more deeply to local experience where they continue their work of innovation Each continent subsequently gives rise to their own respondents In Europe they speak of autonomy and personalism in Latin America liberation theology in North America Feminism and Black Catholic theology and in Asia and Africa a deep post colonial interculturatism At the end I assert that in its nature theological ethics is historical and innovative seeking moral truth for the conscience by looking to speak crossculturally

Catholic Moral Theology in the United States Charles E. Curran, 2008-04-11 In this magisterial volume Charles E Curran surveys the historical development of Catholic moral theology in the United States from its 19th century roots to the present day He begins by tracing the development of pre Vatican II moral theology that with the exception of social ethics had the limited purpose of training future confessors to know what actions are sinful and the degree of sinfulness Curran then explores and illuminates the post Vatican II era with chapters on the effect of the Council on the scope and substance of moral theology the impact of Humanae vitae Pope Paul VI's encyclical condemning artificial contraception fundamental moral theology sexuality and marriage bioethics and social ethics Curran's perspective is unique

For nearly 50 years he has been a major influence on the development of the field and has witnessed first hand the dramatic increase in the number and diversity of moral theologians in the academy and the Church No one is more qualified to write this first and only comprehensive history of Catholic moral theology in the United States Vatican II Jose Antonio E. Aureada, Richard G. Ang, 2007 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2008 Catholic Theology of Marriage in the Era of HIV and AIDS Emily Reimer-Barry, 2015-04-09 Marriage for Life begins by listening to the lived experiences of Catholic married HIV positive women in order to better understand their struggles The eight women interviewed in Chicago Illinois USA shared their stories of marriage of family life of church involvement and of living with HIV Their candid reflections offer a fresh and grounded perspective on the challenges of living with HIV in a US context After listening to and learning from these women s experiences Reimer Barry constructs a theology of Christian marriage that is life giving in a world with AIDS While Catholic teachings have developed and now affirm the equal dignity of women and men troubling legacies of women s subordination remain embedded in liturgical practices and theological texts Arguing that self care is an indispensable component of a healthy marriage Reimer Barry constructs a life affirming theology of marriage that is sensitive to the struggles of her collaborators She argues that marriage for life must promote the full flourishing of both partners respect wives as equal partners with their husbands and offer a coherent and empowering sexual ethic Building on the wisdom of her collaborators lived experiences Reimer Barry examines the need for a more adequate Catholic response to HIV and AIDS arguing that church communities should promote comprehensive sexual education affirm both abstinence and condom use for HIV prevention and actively work to reduce stigmatizing behaviors within church communities She also unpacks the implications of marriage for life for Catholic liturgical practice marriage preparation programs sexual education programs and family ministries Modeling her method on what Pope Francis calls the art of accompaniment Reimer Barry argues that Catholic theology of marriage must be renewed and updated so that all can plainly understand that marriage is for life

The Identity of Christian Morality Ann Marie Mealey, 2016-03-03 This book argues that moral theology has yet to embrace the recommendations of the Second Vatican Council concerning the ways in which it is to be renewed One of the reasons for this is the lack of consensus between theologians regarding the nature content and uniqueness of Christian morality After highlighting the strengths and weaknesses of the so called autonomy and faith ethic schools of thought Mealey argues that there is little dividing them and that in some instances both schools are simply defending one aspect of a hermeneutical dialectic In an attempt to move away from the divisions between proponents of the faith ethic and autonomy positions Mealey enlists the help of the hermeneutical theory of Paul Ricoeur She argues that many of the disagreements arising from the Christian proprium debate can be overcome if scholars look to the possibilities opened up by Ricoeur s hermeneutics of interpretation Mealey also argues that the uniqueness of Christian morality is more adequately explained in terms of a specific identity self that is constantly subject to change and revision in light of many often conflicting moral sources She advocates a move away from attempts to explain the uniqueness of Christian morality in terms of one specific unchanging context motivation norm divine command or value By embracing the possibilities opened up by Ricoeurian hermeneutics Mealey explains how concepts such as revelation tradition orthodoxy and moral conscience may be understood in a hermeneutical way without being deemed sectarian or unorthodox

Critical Concerns in Moral Theology Charles E. Curran,1984 Church Alive! Greg Dening,2006 Here the author has turned his anthropological theological historical and philosophical education as well as his personal experience to writing the living history of three Jesuit parishes on the North Shore of Sydney Harbour for the years 1956 to 2006 This book is an ethnographic history of the prophetic imagination among ordinary believers in times of great religious change It is a narrative about behavior symbols rituals sacred spaces sacred times that tells of the cultural system within them The broader context of post Vatican II Catholicism and a religion that led the community to this point in time is the backdrop Gregorianum ,2005 American Catholic Philosophical Quarterly ,2005 Elenchus of Biblica ,2004 A Sacramental Life Bernard J. Cooke,Michael Horace Barnes,William P. Roberts,2003 The authors of this volume have explored diverse aspects of Bernard s major theological focus drawn from them and directly and indirectly addressed them in a variety of topics BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Moral Theology After Humanae Vitae Vincent Twomey,2010 The author discusses some of the major developments in fundamental moral theology which were sparked off by the publication of the hugely controversial encyclical Humanae Vitae 1968 as well as the impact of its rejection by many leading moral theologians Within the broader cultural background of modernity Professor Twomey analyzes this dissent and attempts to sketch an alternative moral theology based on the recovery of virtue as the context for moral reflection and on a new appreciation of the nature of sexuality He also attempts a positive appreciation of the generally neglected doctrinal content of Pope Paul VI s encyclical that shook the world when it appeared in order to explain why Humanae Vitae remains to this day a sign of contradiction within the Church and beyond Journal of the Society of Christian Ethics ,2009 New Directions in Sexual Ethics Kevin T. Kelly,1998 As a result of his visit to Uganda on behalf of the Catholic Fund for Overseas Development theologian Kevin Kelly made the discovery that poverty and marginalization create windows of opportunity for the transmission of AIDS In this book Kelly brings together the whole of his thinking and experience as a teacher moral theologian and parish priest to challenge the thinking of the Church on sex and sexuality as moral issues for our time Moral Theology Today Pope John XXIII Medical-Moral Research and Education Center,1984
