The Fiction Gateway Suzanne Eberlé, Noelle Williamson, 2009 In this guide two experienced school librarians provide a selection of books for librarians, teachers and parents. The Fiction Gateway is an essential resource that supports individual, group and social reading programs and provides an instant guide to matching children's interests with suitable reading material.

The Outside Child, In and Out of the Book Christine Wilkie-Stibbs, 2008-03-25 The Outside Child In and Out of the Book is situated at the intersection between children's literature studies and childhood studies. In this provocative book Christine Wilkie-Stibbs juxtaposes the narratives of literary and actual children, young adults to explore how Western culture has imagined, defined and dealt with their outsider status, whether orphaned, homeless, refugee, victims of abuse or exploited and how processes of economic, social or political impoverishment are sustained and naturalized in regimes of power, authority and domination. In five chapters titled Outsider, Displaced, Erased, Abject, Unattached and Colonized, the book situates and repositions a range of pre and post millennium children's young adult fictions, autobiographies, policy documents and reports in the current climate of rapid globalization, new out-group definitions and prescribed normativity. Children's young adult fictions considered include Malorie Blackman's Noughts and Crosses trilogy, Mark Haddon's The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time, Jacqueline Wilson's The Illustrated Mum, Shyam Selvadurai's Funny Boy, Ann Provoost's Falling, Meg Rosoff's How I Live Now, Elizabeth Laird's A Little Piece of Ground. Autobiographical works include Zlata Filipovic's Zlata's Diary, Kevin Lewis's The Kid, Latifa's My Forbidden Face and Valérie Zenatti's When I Was a Soldier.

prime minister himself fail to set Jamal and his sister free Bridget and Menzies decide to take matters into their own hands

Cultural Literacy and Empathy in Education Practice Gabriel García Ochoa, Sarah McDonald, 2020-11-30 This book explores a new approach to cultural literacy Taking a pedagogical perspective it looks at the skills knowledge and abilities involved in understanding and interpreting cultural differences and proposes new ways of approaching such differences as sources of richness in intercultural and interdisciplinary collaborations Cultural Literacy and Empathy in Education Practice balances theory with practice providing practical examples for educators who wish to incorporate cultural literacy into their teaching The book includes case studies interviews with teachers and students and examples of exercises and assessments all backed by years of robust scholarly research Bush, City, Cyberspace John Foster, Ern Finnis, Maureen

Nimon, 2005-06-01 Aimed at academic professional and general readers Bush city cyberspace provides a snapshot of the state of Australian children's and adolescent literature in the early twenty first century and an insight into its history In doing so it promotes a sense of where Australian literature for young people may be going and captures a literary and critical mood with which readers in Australia and beyond will identify The title of the work is intended to capture the fact that the field has changed dramatically in the century and a half that Australian children's literature has existed from the bush myths and heroism that inform the past and the present through the recognition that the vast majority of authors and readers live in cities to the third wave of cyberliterature that incorporates multimedia hypertext weblinks and e books none of which lessens the enduring enthusiasm of practitioners and readers for books Bush city cyberspace is not meant to be an encyclopedic volume Rather well known recent and or award winning works have been emphasised with the addition of others where these help to illuminate particular points The book is similar in coverage and approach to Australian Children's Literature An Exploration of Genre and Theme written by the same three authors and published by the Centre for Information Studies in 1995 In the intervening period much has changed in the field notable examples including the blurring of the dividing line between quality and popular literature the blending of genres the rise of a truly indigenous literature the demise to a significant extent of Outbackery in fiction the acceptance of multiculturalism as the norm and the advent of the literature of cyberspace with new methods and the sheer speed of communication between writer and reader All these trends and others are reflected in this work
