Moradas Castillo Interior Dwellings Interior:

The Mystic Fable, Volume One Michel de Certeau, 1995-06-15 The culmination of de Certeau's lifelong engagement with the human sciences this volume is both an analysis of Christian mysticism during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries and an application of this influential scholar's transdisciplinary historiography

Islam in Spanish Literature Luce Lopez-Baralt, 2023-09-20 Islam in Spanish Literature is a sweeping reinterpretation of Spanish literature taking as its given the enormous debt to Arab culture that Spain incurred through the eight centuries of Islamic presence on the Iberian Peninsula This volume takes up the thread of the work of the Arabist Miguel Asín Palacios the first to comment extensively upon the marked Islamic features in many Spanish classics After an initial survey of the presence of Islam and Judaism in Spanish history and culture succeeding chapters explore the Muslim context of Juan Ruiz the author of the Libro de buen amor St John of the Cross St Teresa de Jesús the anonymous sonnet No me mueve mi Dios aljamiado morisco literature and then official Moorophile literature standing in such dramatic contrast to one another and last the novelist Juan Goytisolo who writing today continues to reflect upon the impact of the East on Spanish culture It is no exaggeration to state that this book redefines the ground of the study of Spanish literature it will be hard for the contemporary reader ever again to read it with innocence as a literature exclusively European

A New Companion to Hispanic Mysticism, 2010-06-15 Winner of the 2011 SCSC Bainton Prize for Reference Works The canon of Hispanic mysticism is expanding No longer is our picture of this special brand of early modern devotional practice limited to a handful of venerable saints Instead we recognize a wide range of marginal figures as practitioners of mysticism broadly defined Neither do we limit the study of mysticism necessarily to the Christian religion nor even to the realm of literature Representations of mysticism are also found in the visual plastic and musical arts The terminology and theoretical framework of mysticism permeate early modern Hispanic cultures Paradoxically by taking a more inclusive approach to studying mysticism in its marginal manifestations we draw mysticism in all its complex iterations back toward its rightful place at the center of early modern spiritual experience Contributors Colin Thompson Alastair Hamilton Christina Lee Clara E Herrera Darcy Donahue Elena del Río Parra Evelyn Toft Fernando Durán López Francisco Morales Freddy Domínguez Glyn Redworth Jane Ackerman Jessica Boon Jos Adriano de Freitas Carvalho Luce Lopez Baralt María Carrión Maryrica Lottman and Tess Knighton

El Castillo interior, ó, Tratado de las moradas Teresa de Jesús, 1882

Phenomenology and Mysticism Anthony J. Steinbock, 2007-10-17 A phenomenological view of religious experience based on mysticism

The Intersubjectivity of the Mystic Mary Frohlich, 1993 In the popular mind the mystic is seen as the supreme solitary This image if accurate would make the mystical quest marginal in an era when much theology has emphasized socially responsible praxis Against the popular image Mary Frohlich develops a theological model based on the writings of Bernard Lonergan and the self psychology of Heinz Kohut that both respects mysticism's irreducible character and shows how it concretely transforms people and systems She then applies this model to an interpretation of a classic expression of spiritual transformation the Interior Castle of the sixteenth century mystic Teresa of Avila Spanish Literature Cliffs Notes Staff, Lawrence Hadfield Klibbe, 1972 El castillo interior Saint Teresa (of Avila), 1882 The Mystical Marriage Gerhard Wehr, 1990 Approaches to Teaching Teresa of Ávila and the Spanish Mystics Alison Weber, 2009-01-01 The writings of Teresa of Avila and the Spanish mystics most notably John of the Cross and Luis de León aroused passionate responses when they were composed. Though today's students realize that religious beliefs have wide-ranging consequences, they are presented with particular challenges in studying the Spanish mystics because of their unfamiliarity with the linguistic, social, and religious history of early modern Spain. This volume is designed to help instructors elicit students' curiosity, sympathy, and appreciation for writings that can at first seem alien or confusing. Part 1: Materials recommends accessible editions and translations, print, electronic, and visual resources, background, and critical studies and sources on the philosophical and theological responses to the Spanish mystics. Part 2: Approaches presents methods for teaching the historical contexts of and various theoretical perspectives on the mystics' works. Contributors consider these authors in relation to Islamic and Jewish mysticism, the traditions of women's writing, feminism, theology, and autobiography. They also recommend ways to teach particular texts in different kinds of courses and institutions. Gender and Architecture M. L. Durning, Richard Wrigley, 2000-06-29 Until now the study of gender and architecture has been confined to femininity, and he presents. This series of case study essays is designed with the idea that by providing a framework, gender can be further explored. This book is a historically coherent package of case studies with the final essay bridging into the contemporary. Romance Literature Dorothy Clotelle Clarke, 1948 Santa Teresa Dr. Martina Bengert, Iris Roebeling-Grau, 2019-07-15 Even prior to her widely observed 500th anniversary, Teresa of Avila (1515-1582) was already considered one of the most important authors of occidental mysticism. This volume gathers together contributions from a multitude of disciplines to explore the writings and reception of the Spanish author and saint. Previously disregarded lines of tradition are explored for a new understanding of her oeuvre, which is examined here with special regard to the potential to affect its readers. Teresa proves to not only be an accomplished but also a very literary writer. Santa Teresa proves to be a figure of cultural memory, and the diffusion of her thinking is traced up to the present, whereby a recurrent focus is put on the phenomenon of ecstasy. Part of the widespread resonance of her work is the image of the iconic saint whose emergence as an international phenomenon is presented here for the first time. The volume is closed by an interview with Marina Abramović answering four questions about Teresa. Journal of the Muhyiddin Ibn 'Arabi Society, 2000 The Encyclopedia of Judaism Jacob Neusner, Alan Avery-Peck, William Scott Green, 1999 No Marketing Blurb The A-Z of Spanish Photographers Oliva María Rubio, 2014 This is a superbly illustrated and comprehensive encyclopaedia of Spanish photographers from the 19th to the 21st century. This volume is the first comprehensive dictionary of Spanish photographers published in Spain, an illustrated bibliographical dictionary representing both individual authors and Spanish photography as a whole Featuring over 500 entries covering all the fields of photography from classical to contemporary photography from reportage and street photography to fashion and advertising from stock photography to portraiture from architecture to landscape this volume embraces the history of Spanish photography as a whole from its beginnings to the present day
