1. The company holds shares in four companies which are engaged in the manufacture of cables, and in the manufacture of electrical apparatus. The shares in these companies are not held for the purpose of realising a profit, but for the purpose of securing a steady income. The company has not been able to secure a sufficient income from these shares to meet its expenses.

Robert Burns, a hunting man in a party of six followed him on his hunting trip. After the hunting ended, Robert Burns was so pleased with the party that he invited them to his house, and the party remained there for the night, and remained as a guest. Robert Burns paid for the game and then the guests enjoyed the evening, remaining there until the morning.

A more detailed history of Webster University can, perhaps, best be given in terms of sections, or the various parts of the university. It would not be possible to do justice to all the various sections of the university, but the following sections will give the reader an idea of the various parts of the university and their history.

In the Hospital section several of his family, a son and an only daughter, were present during his long and lonely days at the Whitehaven Hospital, accompanied by friends and relatives who had come from the far corners of the United States.
