MY PReaKy Family

Shoeless Joe and Pinto Paredes mission to Panamá. Between 1903 and 1905, the two men, along with their wives, traveled to Panamá to help build the Panama Canal. They were joined by their wives, Anna and Mary, and their sons, John and George. The family lived in a small house on the canal, and they worked as laborers on the construction site. They also helped to establish a local church and a school for the children of the workers. The family returned to the United States in 1905, but they continued to work on the canal until 1914. They then returned to the United States and settled in California, where they lived until their deaths.
