My Journal Of The Council

My Journal Of The Council:

My Journal of the Council Yves Congar, 2012-12-31 Yves Congar was a theological advisor to the preparatory commission for Vatican II and attended all sessions of the Council 1962-1965 as a theological expert. His daily journal provides a window into the Council's workings and into the development of what would become a series of historical documents and declarations. Theologian Yves Congar, silenced and exiled in 1955, was in 1960 made a theological advisor to the preparatory commission for Vatican II. From then on and all through the Council 1962-1965 he was an influential day to day participant in its work. His diary provides a window into the Council's workings and the development of what would become a series of historical documents and declarations. It also offers Congar's own down to earth and candid perspective on many of the remarkable people and events that shaped the Council.

Mary and the Church at Vatican II: The Untold Story of Lumen Gentium VIII Laurie Olsen, 2024-07-01 This masterful work by Dr Laurie Olsen uncovers the behind the scenes story of the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church Lumen Gentium VIII based on unpublished records from the Vatican Apostolic Archives including internal memoranda, private notes, never before heard audio recordings of closed door sessions and more. This monumental achievement of archival research provides a window into what really happened at Vatican II, the council's inner workings and maneuvers to steer Lumen Gentium VIII in a direction that would profoundly affect Marian devotion and the study of Mariology from that moment on.

This Time in the Church Michael Kelly, 2015-07-01 The series of papers in this volume were given as talks in Sydney during a year of extraordinary surprises after Pope Benedict XVI resigned and Pope Francis was elected as Bishop of Rome as he likes to call himself. Even if it's only catching up with many things that have become commonplace assumptions in the contemporary world, it would seem that the Catholic Church is at a turning point as has been evidenced in all that Pope Francis has done since becoming Bishop of Rome. The subject of the first paper by Michael Kelly is not so much the scandals that have rocked the Catholic Church of late but where does the Church as a community and a public entity need to go from here on these issues. That discussion as intimate as it is related to some very public features of the Church has a context: the history of a Church badly in need of structural reform. If the sentiments of the faithful and the desire to make the community of the Church more in deed what it claims in words, the reach of those changes is as profound as it is extensive. Effective reform of an historical community like the Roman Catholic Church will not happen without a deep grasp of the history of forms in need of reformation. That is the focus of Chris Geraghty's contribution to this collection. Probing the spirit and reforming the body are for a purpose: mission. That mission is conditioned by the challenges of the context in which it is exercised. That is the focus of Frank Brennan's contribution as he assesses the challenges and proposes some fresh approaches to meeting them. Because there have been so many formulaic and essentially unengaged responses to contemporary issues in and beyond the Church, the transformation needed in attitude and practical proposals to handle them is vast.
