The author was an eyewitness to the first genocide of the 20th century a horror in which most of his family was lost. He lived through the first World War and the Bolshevik Revolution that led to the creation of the Soviet Union. He fled from Soviet Armenia first to Moscow and then to London. From there he went with wife and baby daughter to Toronto where he faced the task of earning a living during the Great Depression. Caught up in this swirl of historical forces he describes in fascinating detail his remarkable story of survival. And perhaps not the least remarkable fact of this life he was over 80 years of age when he began writing his life story. There is much here to stimulate and educate not only those who wish to know more about the Armenian Diaspora but everyone with an interest in the human condition as it was experienced in other places and in another time.
