Myanmar Blue Book:

Myanmar Chenyang Li,Chaw Chaw Sein,Xianghui Zhu, Located at the junction of East Asia South Asia and Southeast Asia Myanmar is one of the most important countries in the world s geopolitical landscape Its ongoing political and economic reforms arouse growing concern from the international community especially great powers like the US Japan India and China Will the demostic reform bring Myanmar back to the international community How and to which extent does the demostic reform change Myanmar s relations with other countries This book is based on papers presented at an international conference on Myanmar held at the Institute of Myanmar Studies in Yunnan University China in 2014 Based on their long term observation and studies experts from China Laos Myanmar Germany Singapore and the US share their opinions on Myanmar s domestic reform and foreign relations as well as the current situation and future prospect This book contributes to better understanding of Myanmar in its dramatic political and social transition Diplomatic Bluebook Japan.

Gaimushō,Japan. Gaimushō. Jōhō Bunkakyoku,2020 Diplomatic Bluebook ,2015 General Ne Win's Legacy of Burmanization in Myanmar Saw Eh Htoo,Tony Waters,2024-05-15 This book focuses on how Burmanization created and reinforced ethnic divides since the 1962 coup d etat when General Ne Win concentrated all authority in the Burmese speaking army Background research for the book includes Burmese language materials from the Burmese Socialist Party BSP and others that describe with what the BSP believed in their own terms This is unique from previous works on the topic which either simply pointed out that the policies didn t work and therefore are uninteresting or to claim that they were necessary given the chaos of the previous regime The authors agree that Ne Win s policies didn t work However the book goes further by elaborating why Burmanization policies developed in the 1960s are important for understanding Burmese society today Most importantly Ne Win s ideology reflects how patterns of interethnic relationships in Myanmar lead to the intractability of the battles in early twenty first century Myanmar

The Bluebook ,1996 Handbook of Japan's Foreign and Domestic Policies During the Decade of Abe Tosh Minohara,2025-10-01 No Japanese leader has dominated Japan s recent political landscape more than the late Abe Shinzo With the this as the basic premise the main objective of this compiled volume is to examine and assess Japan s foreign and domestic polices during the 2010s a decade which largely overlaps with Abe s tenure as prime minister This book is much more than a mere study of Abe s leadership however as it ventures far beyond the traditional scope of diplomatic and political history by incorporating a multidisciplinary approach As such the contributors comprise not only historians and political scientists but also sociologists economists legal experts journalists and practitioners of diplomacy This diversity in backgrounds makes it possible to examine a much wider range of topics and themes that clearly illuminate the multitude of challenges that Japan faced in the decade as well as how it responded to those challenges leading to a more thorough understanding of the path that Japan took in the 2010s Rising Powers and Peacebuilding Charles T Call,Cedric de Coning,2017-08-29 This book is open access under a CC BY 4 0 license

This edited volume examines the policies and practices of rising powers on peacebuilding. It analyzes how and why their approaches differ from those of traditional donors and multilateral institutions. The policies of the rising powers towards peacebuilding may significantly influence how the UN and others undertake peacebuilding in the future. This book is an invaluable resource for practitioners, policy makers, researchers and students who want to understand how peacebuilding is likely to evolve over the next decades. The European Union and Myanmar Ludovica Marchi, 2019-08-16 This book analyses European foreign policy as the activity of the European Union EU as a global actor and explores its efforts to raise its visibility in Southeast Asia through its relations with the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN and Myanmar. Contributors examine the EU's engagement in a process of dynamic consolidation of its relationship with Asia and the Pacific region. They shed light on how interregional relations with ASEAN and interactions with Myanmar can be viewed as a perfect opportunity to promote the EU's presence in the region. Chapters examine the EU's efforts to inspire Myanmar to connect with security cooperation and Myanmar's engagement with the EU to diversify its foreign relations with China. The book also explores the extent to which the EU has failed regarding the Rohingya crisis and whether the EU's effort to support the peace process in Myanmar has been beneficial. A timely and important contribution to the growing literature on the EU's role in the world and its relations with East and Southeast Asia, this book will be of interest to academics in the field of International Relations, European Politics and Foreign Policy, Comparative Regionalism, East Asian and Southeast Asian Studies.

History of the Shan State Aung Tun (U Sai), 2009 The Shan are the largest of the many national ethnic groups residing in the Union of Myanmar. After migrating from their early home in the Hwangho Yangtze region of China they settled in the eastern part of today's Myanmar primarily in the Shan Plateau around the first century AD. The Shan dominated the political stage for a few centuries founding three historically important dynasties in the heartland of Myanmar at Pinya, Sagaing and Inwa. Shan history then merges with that of Myanmar until after World War II and Myanmar's independence from the British when the Shan initiated efforts to establish an autonomous state. Sai Aung Tun deftly traces the cultural and political history of the Shan people from their origins to Myanmar independence and up to the constitutional crisis of 1962. His work highlights particularly the political affairs of the Shan state from 1946 to 1962. He details the Second Pang Long Conference of 1947 which brought about the historic agreement of all the nationalities of Myanmar to work together for independence. He examines the significant role played by the Shan people in the debate on whether Myanmar should adopt a federal system of administration and their efforts to draft a new constitution. He concludes with an account of the military coup of 1962 which effectively sabotaged the constitutional reform process a stalemate that still persists today. Unique among Shan histories is the in-depth analysis of the Kuomintang incursion into the Shan States in the early 1950s with its political, military and economic consequences. Sai Aung Tun has amassed a substantial amount of primary materials in the text proper including verbatim excerpts from conference interviews and speeches as well as a rich collection of official documents minutes and reports in the appendixes The historical critique of existing constitutional weaknesses will be of interest to those who advocate the drafting of a new constitution in Myanmar The pleas for unity and goodwill among the ethnic groups made by various leaders nearly half a century ago will resonate with readers today This comprehensive reference work will be an invaluable resource for all Shan scholars and Myanmar observers and an excellent addition to any reference collection on Southeast Asia Soya & Oilseed Bluebook ,2006 Textile ,1996 Serving Library Users
