Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 2002      Jihad in Brooklyn Samuel M. Katz, 2005-01-04 The true story of a potentially devastating terrorist plot in New York City and the heroes who risked their lives to prevent it. On the morning of July 31, 1997 two young Palestinian men living in Brooklyn New York were prepared to sacrifice themselves as martyrs to their bloody cause. Their plan to board a subway filled with commuters wait until the train was traveling through the tunnel under the East River and then detonate a shrapnel covered explosive belt they had built in their tenement apartment. The attack would have killed hundreds possibly even thousands while sending the city and the country into a state of panic. This is the inspiring, startling and frightening true story of how the NYPD learned of the impending attack and made a daring pre-dawn raid on the terrorist hideout. The gripping series of events began with an Egyptian immigrant who learning of the plan alerted the police. Coordinating an assault with limited resources and manpower seven brave members of the NYPD moved in reaching the terrorists when they literally had their fingers on the trigger saving countless lives preventing a disaster that would have paralyzed New York City and alerting the nation that in today's world violence and terror could begin at home.
