Calling Bullshit Jevin D. West,Carl T. Bergstrom,2020-08-04 A necessary book for our times But also just great fun Saul Perlmutter Nobel Laureate The world is awash in bullshit and we re drowning in it Politicians are unconstrained by facts Science is conducted by press release Start up culture elevates hype to high art These days calling bullshit is a noble act Based on a popular course at the University of Washington Calling Bullshit gives us the tools to see through the obfuscations deliberate and careless that dominate every realm of our lives In this lively guide biologist Carl Bergstrom and statistician Jevin West show that calling bullshit is crucial to a properly functioning social group whether it be a circle of friends a community of researchers or the citizens of a nation Through six rules of thumb they help us recognize bullshit whenever and wherever we encounter it even within ourselves and explain it to a crystal loving aunt or casually racist grandfather Marketing Ethics & Society Lynne Eagle, Stephan Dahl, 2015-09-15 Marketing while essential to organisational success is arguably one of the most controversial aspects of business management Criticisms of marketing's impact range from fostering materialism and unsustainable consumption patterns through to the use of deception stifling of innovation and lowering of quality to name but a few Taking a holistic and international perspective this book critically examines the ethical challenges marketing faces and explores strategies marketers can use to respond to those challenges The book examines specific aspects of marketing activities such as ethical considerations in relation to young consumers potentially harmful products and criticism of the societal impact of medical arts and tourism marketing activities It then combines these with wider discussions of frameworks that enable marketers to respond to ethical challenges supplemented by discussions of cross cultural and international perspectives consumer responses and ethical consumption movements as well as shifting historical perceptions of marketing ethics The book is accompanied by a companion website including PowerPoint slides and teaching notes per chapter links to free SAGE journal articles and online videos selected per chapter by the authors quizzes per chapter and links to further reading online

NAMED A FINANCIAL TIMES BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR 2024 AI is on the brink of dominating our lives threatening our privacy and human future if we don't take action now In The Algorithm Emmy award winning Wall Street Journal and Guardian contributor Hilke Schellmann delivers a shocking and illuminating exposé on one of the most pressing civil rights issues of our time how AI has quietly and mostly out of sight taken over the world of work Schellmann takes readers on a journalistic detective story meeting job applicants and employees who have been subjected to these technologies playing AI based video games that companies use for hiring and investigating algorithms that scan our online activity to construct personality profiles including if we are prone to self-harm She convinces whistleblowers to share results of faulty AI tools and tests algorithms that analyze job candidates' facial expressions and tools that predict from our voices if we are anxious or depressed Schellmann finds employees whose every keystroke was tracked and AI that analyzes group discussions or even predicts when someone may leave a company Her reporting reveals in detail how much employers already know about us and how little we know about the technologies that are used on us The Algorithm tells an even bigger story with Schellmann discovering faulty algorithms and systemic discrimination of women and people of color which may have already harmed thousands of job seekers and employees It advocates to go beyond these tools to more thoughtfully consider how we hire, promote, and treat human beings with or without AI As Schellmann emphasizes we need to decide how we build algorithmic tools in any industry and what protections we need to put in place in an AI driven world Hilke Schellmann is an Emmy award winning investigative reporter and journalism professor at NYU Her work covering artificial intelligence has been published in The New York Times The Guardian the MIT Technology Review and The Wall Street Journal where she led a team investigating how AI is changing our lives She has also reported for NPR's Planet Money podcast on fake online reviews and her investigation for VICE on HBO was a finalist for a Peabody Award Her PBS Frontline documentary Outlawed in Pakistan premiered at the Sundance Film Festival and was honored with an Emmy award
