Jewish Bialystok and Its Diaspora Rebecca Kobrin, 2010-05-07 The mass migration of East European Jews and their resettlement in cities throughout Europe the United States Argentina the Middle East and Australia in the late 19th and early 20th centuries not only transformed the demographic and cultural centers of world Jewry it also reshaped Jews understanding and performance of their diasporic identities Rebecca Kobrin s study of the dispersal of Jews from one city in Poland Bialystok demonstrates how the act of migration set in motion a wide range of transformations that led the migrants to imagine themselves as exiles not only from the mythic Land of Israel but most immediately from their east European homeland Kobrin explores the organizations institutions newspapers and philanthropies that the Bialystokers created around the world and that reshaped their perceptions of exile and diaspora

Duvalier's Ghosts Jana Evans Braziel, 2017-05-24 Urgently pursues those nameless ghosts of Haitians lost in the liminal space of the Black Atlantic New West Indian Guide Foregrounds the experiences of refugees particularly those refused asylum and detained in camps the political mobilization of the diaspora in the United States the ramifications of the policies and adjustment programmes imposed on Haiti by the World Bank the International Monetary Fund and USAID Bulletin of Latin American Research Theoretically sound and well researched Braziel has written a compelling book on the literatures of post Duvalier Haiti Millery Polyne New York University A very original study a tour de force that crisscrosses the disciplinary boundaries typically separating the social sciences and the humanities It is richly researched beautifully written and will surely attract much critical attention and praise Valerie Kaussen University of Missouri From a position of urgent political engagement this provocative book offers novel and compelling interpretations of several well known Haitian born authors particularly regarding U S intervention in their homeland Drawing on the diasporic cultural texts of several authors such as Edwidge Danticat and Dany Laferrière Jana Evans Braziel examines how writers participate in transnational movements for global social justice In their fictional works they discuss the United States many interventionist methods in Haiti including surveillance foreign aid and military assistance Through their work they reveal that the majority of Haitians do not welcome these intrusions and actively criticize U S treatment of Haitians in both countries Braziel encourages us to analyze the instability and violence of small nations like Haiti within the larger frame of international financial and military institutions and forms of imperialism She forcefully argues that by reading these works as anti imperialist much can be learned about why Haitians and Haitian exiles often have negative perceptions of the U S
