Meditations for the Humanist A. C. Grayling, 2003-11 Meditations for the humanist is a wide ranging magnanimous inquiry into the philosophical and ethical questions that bear most strongly on the human condition. Containing nearly fifty linked commentaries on topics ranging from love lying perseverance revenge racism religion history loyalty health and leisure Meditations for the humanist does not offer definitive statements but rather prompts to reflection. For those wishing to explore ethical issues outside the framework of organized religious belief Meditations for the humanist offers an inviting map to the country of philosophical reflection.

Meditations for the Humanist A. C. Grayling, 2002 In a brilliant collection of brief meditations on the problems and possibilities of being human nearly 50 linked commentaries explore love lying perseverance revenge racism religion history loyalty health and leisure.

Jesus and Philosophy Paul K. Moser, 2008-10-13 What if anything does Jesus of Nazareth have to do with philosophy? This question motivates this collection of essays from leading theologians, philosophers and biblical scholars. Part I portrays Jesus in his first century intellectual and historical context, attending to intellectual influences and contributions and contemporaneous similar patterns of thought. Part II examines how Jesus influenced two of the most prominent medieval philosophers. It considers the seeming conceptual shift from Hebraic categories of thought to distinctively Greco Roman ones in later Christian philosophers. Part III considers the significance of Jesus for some prominent contemporary philosophical topics including epistemology and the meaning of life. The focus is not so much on how Christianity figures in such topics as on how Jesus makes distinctive contributions to them.

Contemporary Humanistic Judaism Adam Chalom, Life, Sex and Ideas A. C. Grayling, 2004-11 Short and elegantly written, this volume contains 60 essays organized under the categories of moral matters, public culture, community and society, anger and war, and grief and remembrance.

Ethics John K. Roth, 2005 Enlightened Literacy Beyond the Reading Wars Dr. Deborah Duncan Owens, 2025-05-29 Enlightened Literacy Beyond the Reading Wars: Providing Hope for Democracy, Global Citizenship and the Human Condition provides an in depth historical analysis of the reading wars that have dominated the policy discussions and governmental mandates about how reading is taught in public schools across the United States for decades. The resulting fixation on phonics and criticism of public schools continues to drive headlines in spite of what is considered settled science about the essentiality of phonics in early reading instruction. Deborah Duncan Owens' journey to develop a new paradigm for literacy instruction through enlightened literacy provides insight into the convergence of the economic and governmental forces that have resulted in the stagnation of literacy research and practice and the reductionist view of reading instruction that threatens literacy development in the United States. Enlightened Literacy offers an alternative framework that holds the promise of moving beyond the reading wars toward a more expansive vision for literacy education. Actualizing enlightened literacy in the classroom environment is examined through four aspects: 1 a panoramic perspective, 2 a humanistic ethos, 3 a spirit of curiosity, and 4 a focus on the pragmatic.
