Meg Goldberg On Parade:

Meg Goldberg on Parade Andria Warmflash Rosenbaum, 2015-10-01 New York City's Israel Parade is extra special this year for timid and small Meg Goldberg. This shy little girl with a big imagination finds plenty of ways to join the fun and maybe just maybe earn the Grand Marshal's crown.

The Jewish South Shari Rabin, 2025-04-01 A panoramic history of the Jewish American South from European colonization to today. In 1669 the Carolina colony issued the Fundamental Constitutions of Carolina which offered freedom of worship to Jews, heathens, and other dissenters, ushering in an era that would see Jews settle in cities and towns throughout what would become the Confederate States. The Jewish South tells their stories and those of their descendants and coreligionists who followed, providing the first narrative history of southern Jews. Drawing on a wealth of original archival findings spanning three centuries, Shari Rabin sheds new light on the complicated decisions that southern Jews made as individuals, families, and communities to fit into a society built on Native land and enslaved labor and to maintain forms of Jewish difference often through religious innovation and adaptation. She paints a richly textured and sometimes troubling portrait of the period, exploring how southern Jews have been targets of antisemitism and violence but also complicit in racial injustice. Rabin considers Jewish immigration and institution building, participation in the Civil War, the 1915 lynching of Leo Frank, and Jewish support for and resistance to the modern fight for Black civil rights. She examines shifting understandings of Jewishness, highlighting both the reality of religious diversity and the ongoing role of Christianity in defining the region. Recovering a neglected facet of the American experience, The Jewish South enables readers to see the South through the eyes of people with a distinctive religious heritage and a southern history older than the United States itself. Harvard Business School Bulletin, 1986
