Thanatourism and Cinematic Representations of Risk Rodanthe Tzanelli, 2016-04-14 In today's world the need to eliminate natural and human made disasters has been at the forefront of national and international socio political agendas The management of risks such as terrorism labour strikes protests and environmental degradation has become pivotal for countries that depend on their economy's tourist sector Indeed there is fear that the end of tourism might be nigh due to inadequate institutional foresight Yet in designing relevant policies to tackle this arts such as that of filmmaking have yet to receive due consideration This book adopts an unorthodox approach to debates about the end of tourism Through twenty first century cinematic narratives of symbolically interconnected risks it considers how art envisages the future of humanity's well being These risks include migration as an infectious disease alien incursions as racialized labour mobilities cyborg rebellion as the fear of post colonial otherness and zombie anthropophagy as the replacement of rooted identities by nomadic lifestyles Such filmic scenarios articulate the futuristic survival of community as the triumph of the technological human over otherness and provide a means to debate societal risks that weave identity politics into unequal mobilities This book will appeal to researchers and students interested in mobilities theory tourism and travel theory film studies and aesthetics globalisation studies race labour and migration

Selling British Columbia Michael Dawson, 2004 Dawson's analysis draws on promotional pamphlets newspaper advertisements and films as well as archival sources about government civic and international tourism organizations He argues that in order to understand the roots of the fully fledged consumer culture that developed in Canada it is necessary to understand the connections between the 1930s 1940s and the postwar era He underlines the significance of the Depression and the Second World War ostensibly periods of underconsumption For the development of tourism promotion and consumerism in general This cultural history will be welcomed by British Columbian and Canadian historians as well as scholars of consumer culture and tourism Jacket

Assembly West Point Association of Graduates (Organization).,1999 Facts on File Yearbook 1974 Lester A. Sobel,1975 Empire Without End Imaobong Umoren,2025-10-21 A powerful groundbreaking new history of Britain and the Caribbean challenging existing thinking about British colonization and recontextualizing the twin stories of contemporary inequality in both regions In Empire Without End historian Imaobong Umoren delivers an incisive and captivating exploration of the deep complex ties between Britain and the Caribbean largely underexamined until now Spanning from the 16th century to the present this riveting narrative redefines how we view the Caribbean not just as a source of labor and resources for the British Empire but as a dynamic testing ground for social and cultural experimentation Umoren uncovers how the Caribbean shaped British societal ideals many of which were exported back to Britain laying the foundation for a racial caste system that still affects social political and economic life today This deeply researched work goes beyond historical accounts of sugar plantations and slavery Umoren dives deeper exploring how religion global migration war grassroots protest and even tourism all played into the Caribbean s lasting legacy She boldly connects the dots to modern day issues arguing that the shadow of British colonization lingers through neo colonialism continuing to shape the lives of Caribbean people As the world confronts a collective racial reckoning Empire Without End sheds light on the ongoing fight for reparations and justice offering a much needed lens on history s unfinished business Written with clarity and packed with profound insights Empire Without End is a must read for anyone curious about the intertwined histories of Britain the Caribbean and America Joining the ranks of acclaimed historical titles like Black Ghosts of Empire and works by Ta Nehisi Coates this book provides a fresh urgent perspective on empire s enduring impact and the global conversation it demands today Princeton Alumni Weekly Jesse Lynch Williams,Edwin Mark Norris,1994 The Journal of the Armed Forces ,1882 Bazaar Exchange and Mart, and Journal of the Household ,1891 Congressional Record United States.
