Arsenal on the Double Bernard Azulay, 2012-12-07 These are heady times at Highbury Gobsmacked Gooners have been giving it large over their glorious Double victory after three long years of playing bridesmaid to their northern nemesis Arsenal on the Double is an intimate account of the most exciting season since the inception of the Premier League seen through the experienced journalistic eyes of a lifelong Arsenal fan one of the legions of loyal hail or shine fanatics who follow their club over land and sea and Leicester Any lifelong addict of the beautiful game will be able to relate to this roller coaster ride of tribulation and ultimate triumph The author takes us from the shock of discovering the debilitating cost of season ticket renewals on the day of last year's FA Cup final disaster to the usual evangelical early season euphoria He traces the Arsenal's almost annual November inconsistency which was transformed by a New Year's resolution to win a resolution resulting from their Christmas season encounters with card happy referees Go with the Gunners on an emotionally exhausting but joyful journey as they romp all the way back to another FA Cup final in Cardiff Delight in the dramatic denouement of the Arsenal's third Double when Old Trafford becomes a Gooner's Theatre of Dreams and their record breaking season reaches its ultimate climax on the enemy's turf

Contemporary Art About Architecture Nora

Wendl, 2017-07-05 An important resource for scholars of contemporary art and architecture this volume considers contemporary art that takes architecture as its subject Concentrated on works made since 1990 Contemporary Art About Architecture A Strange Utility is the first to take up this topic in a sustained and explicit manner and the first to advance the idea that contemporary art functions as a form of architectural history theory and analysis Over the course of fourteen essays by both emerging and established scholars this volume examines a diverse group of artists in conjunction with the vernacular canonical and fantastical structures engaged by their work I Mangano Ovalle Matthew Barney Monika Sosnowska Pip Nguyen duy and Paul Pfeiffer are among those considered as are the compelling questions of architecture's relationship to photography the evolving legacy of Mies van der Rohe the notion of an architectural unconscious and the provocative concepts of the unbuilt and the unbuildable Through a rigorous investigation of these issues Contemporary Art About Architecture calls attention to the fact that art is now a vital form of architectural discourse Indeed this phenomenon is both pervasive and in its individual incarnations compelling a reason to think again about the entangled histories of architecture and art
