Mindful Knitting Inviting Contemplative Practice To The Craft:

Mindful Knitting Tara Jon Manning, 2011-10-21 Mindful Knitting contains ten original and enjoyable knitting projects each complemented by a meditation exercise As knitters know the craft is much more than the finished project By looking at the parallels between knitting and meditation how simple repetitive actions can lead to a grater connection with the world this knitting book shows you how to enrich your life by combining the two Author Tara Jon Manning a noted knitwear designer and practicing Buddhist explores the spiritual rewards of knitting Bring inner serenity to your knitting practice and everyday activities Fully appreciate the objects you knit making eah more significant and satisfying Connect to others by donating to charities creating gifts or knitting with a group To help with with your knitting projects Mindful knitting includes clearly written patterns tips for intuitive knitting and a helpful glossary of knitting techniques and resources Whether you re an advanced or a beginning knitter or a new or seasoned meditator this Buddhist knitting book will help you develop a renewed sense of self and an increased appreciation of the world around you Mindful America Jeff Wilson, 2014 Jeff Wilson explores the diverse ways in which the Buddhist derived practice of mindfulness meditation has been applied in American culture Perspectives on Our Father Abraham Steven A. Hunt, 2012-09-18 More than simply a Festschrift this book encompasses a uniquely broad range of traditions having to do with Abraham It also succeeds in the task that Wilson has always encouraged bringing Jews and Christians together in fruitful dialogue Jacket Knitting for Good! Betsy Greer, 2008-11-11 Every time we knit we have the opportunity to create positive change in ourselves our community and in the world That s Betsy Greer s fervent belief and in this book she shows us how Betsy explores the ways we can use knitting to slow down in a fast paced culture while using the craft to benefit charities in our communities to advocate for worthwhile causes and to support individuals and communities across the globe Filled with insights from knitters and crafters on how they use craft to benefit others Knitting for Good will get you thinking about knitting in a whole new way To learn more about the author visit her website craftivism.com , Foundations and Futures in the Sociology of Religion Luke Doggett, Alp Arat, 2017-12-14 Since the sociology of religion became recognised as a distinct sub discipline over the last century the dominance of approaches taking their inspiration from the sociological classics has increasingly been challenged Empirical findings have brought the notion of secularisation into question and theorists have sought to deconstruct how we think of religion This collection appraises the continuing influence of the foundational approaches and places these in relation to newly emerging directions in the field The book is divided into four sections each section containing one foundational chapter written by an established academic followed by two futures chapters contributed by emerging scholars in the sub discipline These chapters complement one another by placing the overview of future directions in the context of a survey of the development of the sociology of religion over the last century Topics discussed in these chapters include lived religion sexuality ritual religion and the media Combining erudite examinations of the British Sociological Association

Sociology of Religion Study Group's work so far with explorations of the future directions its research might take this book is vital reading for any scholar whose work combines religious studies and sociology Prayer Shawl Ministries and Women's Theological Imagination Donna Bowman, 2015-10-30 Based on personal interviews Prayer Shawl Ministries and Women's Theological Imagination uncovers the theological creativity of Christian lay women quietly stitching their own sacred fabric From the origins of prayer shawl ministry in feminist and ecumenical thought the movement has grown to hundreds of groups composed mostly of women over 60 in denominations across the political and doctrinal spectrum Through participation in handcrafting ministries participants reflect on themes that sometimes complement and sometimes challenge the public stances of their communities Women in prayer shawl ministries develop commitments to broad inclusion reject the intrusion of market forces and realize their productive power Out of their traditional roles as caretakers they craft compassion into a conscious theologically rich practice Out of their historical subordination they cultivate trust in divine providence and hope for the preservation of their legacy Listening to their ideas convictions and concerns and connecting them to findings from multiple scholarly fields this book seeks to disclose the convergences and complexity of ordinary women's theological thinking and behavior Tricycle, 2003 Braille Book Review, 2009 Library Journal, 2004
