Seeking Alternative Perspectives of Southeast Asia Andrew Tian Huat Tan, Kay Kim Khoo, 2004 Southeast Asia

Andrew Tian Huat Tan, 2006 Of late Southeast Asia has come into prominence as the second front in the global war on terrorism following the terrorist attacks on September 11 This extra regional designation which initially caused angst and consternation has given way to the region's participation with varying degrees of enthusiasm in the war on terrorism Events such as the discovery of the Al Qaeda linked Jemaah Islamiah JI network and the deadly Bali bomb attack in 2002 have brought the region into focus as a frontline in the war on international terrorism As a very significant proportion of world trade and oil traverses the region's vital waterways there is growing international recognition of the strategic importance of Southeast Asia Updated and revised this collection of writings by a well known expert and advisor on various security and terrorism issues gives the reader an in depth look at the looming security threats and challenges in the region Musical

Nationalism in Indonesia Sharifah Faizah Syed Mohammed, 2021-03-20 This book charts the growth of the Indonesian nationalistic musical genre of lagu seriosa in relation to the archipelago's history in the 1950s and 1960s examining how folk songs were implemented as a valuable tool for promoting government propaganda The author reveals how the genre was shaped to fit state ideologies and agendas in the Sukarno and Soeharto eras It also reveals the very significant role played by Radio Republik Indonesia in the genre's development and dissemination Little research has been done to investigate how Indonesian music contributed to nation building during Indonesia's immediate post colonial period Emulating the European art song the genre was adapted to compose songs with the purpose of promoting a strengthened collective Indonesian identity fostered by a group of musicians who functioned as gatekeepers monitoring and devising various mechanisms for songs to conform to the propagandistic needs of the Indonesian government at the time The result was the development of classical style of singing and the cultivation of a patriotic collection of music during the Guided Democracy period 1959-1965 which peaked at the height of the Konfrontasi 1963-1966. Lagu seriosa lost popularity as popular music infiltrated Indonesia in the 1970s but it remains an iconic yet understudied aspect of the nationalistic agenda in Indonesia. The case studies of selected songs reflected continuity and change in musical style and over time. This book is of interest to scholars studying the intersection between history, politics, identity, arts and cultural studies in Indonesia. It is also of interest to researchers investigating the role of music in identity formation and nation building more widely.

Problems and Issues in

Malaysia-Singapore Relations Andrew Tian Huat Tan, 1997 Pancawarna, 2013 Security Perspectives of the Malay Archipelago Andrew Tian Huat Tan, 2004 The Malay Archipelago namely Singapore, Brunei, Malaysia, Indonesia and the Philippines has recently risen in prominence as the second front in the war on terrorism. This study argues that the Malay Archipelago constitutes a distinct sub regional security complex within Southeast Asia due to the existence of patterns of amity and enmity as well as transnational terrorism linkages.
