Oblates Commentaries Benedictine Spirituality Growing:

An Oblate's Commentaries on Benedictine Spirituality Thomas Rillo, 2015-12-11 Over a period of fifteen years I have written for the Benedictine Oblate newsletter and various other Oblate publications. Usually the topic of the article was suggested by Father Meinrad Brune OSB Director of Benedictine Oblates Saint Meinrad Archabbey and in keeping with the theme of the newsletter selected for the year. Many of the articles in this collection of oblate commentaries were written and published in past Benedictine Oblate newsletters. The various sections represent the various themes selected by Father Meinrad Brune OSB and assigned to me for the writing. Much of the research has been accomplished using the extensive Oblate Library located in the Oblate Office. The resource material has been readily available. Computers were available and much of the writing was done on them in the Oblate Office. The longest section in this collection is the one titled Oblation Growing Closer to God. In this section I have attempted to include those aspects of oblation that are most confronted by Benedictine oblates both those who are novices and those who are invested. The next longest section is the one titled Commentaries on The Rule of Saint Benedict. The literary commentaries of nine Benedictine authors were selected by Father Meinrad and assigned to me. Four major chapters in The Rule of Saint Benedict were selected because of their significant importance to the monastic life. The Prologue, Humility, Obedience and the Restraint of Speech or Silence were included because of their applicability to Benedictine oblation as well as to the Benedictine monk. The section of Oblate Fitness for God is the smallest with just two articles. Emphasis is placed on the concept that the human body is a temple for God and related to the mind. Two other sections are Extending Oblation through Service and Experience and The Rule of Saint Benedict Oblates Guide for Work and Prayer. It is intended that the oblate reader will be eclectic in the reading and select them on the basis of contemporary need.

The Oblate Life Gervase Holdaway, 2013-01-25 A comprehensive guide to living as an oblate in the home in society at work and in the church. Written by experienced oblate directors from around the world it is an essential lifelong formative guide for anyone living or considering the oblate life.

Preferring Christ Norvene Vest, 2004-10-01 A modern approach to spiritual deepening using the ancient but wise Rule of St. Benedict. The Rule of St. Benedict continues to attract those who seek to live a deeper life connected to Christ. But with such an ancient text how can we authentically engage St. Benedict's Rule in a manner that is true to its profound insights and to our own spiritual journey? Norvene Vest suggests that the answer lies in the way we read the Rule. It shouldn't be studied like a book of regulations or a school textbook. It should be read as lectio divina. This profound yet very practical volume speaks to our urgent spiritual need. People yearn for an interior life deeply rooted in God, humanly balanced and substantially founded in the Christian heritage. Vest offers a valuable resource by rendering much more accessible the spiritual wealth of the key text of the ancient Benedictine charism. Here is the solid balanced wisdom that has nourished and guided innumerable Christians for nearly fifteen centuries.

Path of the Purified Heart Laura Dunham, 2012-02-01 Path of the Purified Heart traces the classic

Christian spiritual journey toward transformation into the likeness of Christ in a unique fascinating way Drawing on the voices of wise elders from the past and present Dunham illuminates the common path all Christians and spiritual seekers may take toward union with God Through the motifs of the liturgical year and the labyrinth the author weaves in her own journey on this path during her year of purification Cistercian Studies Quarterly ,1997 Where Two Or Three Are Gathered

Daniel L. Prechtel,2012-04 Much has been written about the practice of one to one spiritual directions but much less about small group communities that offer in depth mutual spiritual support and guidance to its members But small groups are most likely the more usual setting for spiritual companionship and have strong biblical theological and historical foundation in the Christian tradition This book offers a detailed presentation of ten small group models plus guidance in group leadership dynamics It also presents material related to group retreat work spiritual guidance with organizations and peer supervision consultation model for supporting leaders of spiritual companionship groups and retreats Church leaders spiritual directors and educators are looking for the kinds of resources this book provides to assist them in understanding and leading groups and retreats
