Ontopower War Powers And The State Of Perception:

Ontopower Brian Massumi, 2015-07-23 Color coded terror alerts invasion drone war rampant surveillance all manifestations of the type of new power Brian Massumi theorizes in Ontopower Through an in depth examination of the War on Terror and the culture of crisis Massumi identifies the emergence of preemption which he characterizes as the operative logic of our time Security threats regardless of the existence of credible intelligence are now felt into reality Whereas nations once waited for a clear and present danger to emerge before using force a threat s felt reality now demands launching a preemptive strike Power refocuses on what may emerge as that potential presents itself to feeling This affective logic of potential washes back from the war front to become the dominant mode of power on the home front as well This is ontopower the mode of power embodying the logic of preemption across the full spectrum of force from the hard military intervention to the soft surveillance With Ontopower Massumi provides an original theory of power that explains not only current practices of war but the culture of insecurity permeating our contemporary neoliberal condition Parameters, 2016 Translating the Monster Douglas Robinson, 2022-10-24 One of the hottest battles emerging out of the theoretical and methodological collisions between Comparative Literature and Translation Studies especially on the battleground of World Literature has to do with translatability and untranslatability Is any translation of a great work of literature not only a lamentable betrayal but an impossibility Or is translation an imperfect but invaluable tool for the transmission of works and ideas beyond language barriers Both views are defensible indeed both are arguably commonsensical What Douglas Robinson argues in Translating the Monster however is that both are gross oversimplifications of a complex situation that he calls on Jacques Derrida to characterize as the monster The Finnish novelist Robinson takes as his case study for that monstrous rethinking is Volter Kilpi 1874 1939 regarded by scholars of Finnish literature as Finland s second world class writer the first being Aleksis Kivi 1834 1872 Kilpi s modernist experiments of the 1930s especially his so called Archipelago series beginning with his masterpiece In the Alastalo Parlor 1933 were forgotten and neglected for a half century due to the extreme difficulty of his narrative style he reinvents the Finnish language to the extent that many Finns say it is like reading a foreign language and one contemporary critic called it the Mesopotamian language of a half wit That novel has been translated exactly twice into Swedish and German Translating the Monster also gives the English speaking reader an extended taste of the novel in English en route to a series of reframings of the novel as allegories of translation and world literature Performance and Temporalisation Jodie McNeilly, Maeva Veerapen, 2015-02-22 Performance and Temporalisation features a collection of scholars and artists writing about the coming forth of time as human experience Whether drawing designing watching performance being baptised playing cricket dancing eating walking or looking at caves each explores the making of time through their art scholarship and everyday lives Feminist Praxis against U.S. Militarism Wonhee Anne Joh, Nami Kim, 2019-12-04 Feminist Praxis against U S Militarism provides critical feminist and womanist analyses of U S militarism that challenge the ongoing U S neoliberal military industrial complex and its multivalent violence that destroys people s lives especially women and other vulnerable populations It highlights the intentional critique of U S militarism from feminist womanist perspectives that seek to show the ways in which gender race ethnicity sexuality and violence intersect to threaten women s lives especially women of color s lives and the broader environment upon which women s lives are dependent Most of all this volume challenges the readers to understand the U S as the warfare counterterror carceral state and its devastating effects on the everyday lives of women especially women of color locally nationally and globally This volume also helps readers understand the racialized gendered impacts of U S militarism in conjunction with the ongoing global economies of dispossession and militarized violence across the borders of nation states Interrogating U S military interventions in other countries can show how the U S War on Terror directly affects U S domestic affairs and daily lives in the United States

Care, Power, Information Alexander Stingl,2019-12-05 This book is a critique and provincialization of Western social science and Global Northern academia by the author of The Digital Coloniality of Power It exposes shared colonial and extractive rationalities and histories of research higher education digitalization and bioeconomy while proposing in the idea of BluesCollarship a sketch for an alternative culture of worlding and commoning knowledge work and for making care matter in research and higher education In a discourse analysis and provincialization of research and higher education a tradition of elitist White Collaredness in academia and in the social sciences in particular is criticized and an alternative attitude towards the production transfer and use of knowledge BluesCollarship is proposed The latter is rooted in a different idea of what infrastructure is and in practices of decoloniality Noting the current political climate of propaganda and populism the persistence of social inequalities as well as of racism and misogyny it is proposed that how people give warrant for knowledge claims should be reviewed under different terms A coherent theme is that there is a genealogical root for current neo extractive and neo colonial rationalities in the Athenian idea of oikos which conflates family household and property In taking a distinctly writerly approach rather than giving ready made answers the book aims at permanently provoking readers at every turn to think further as well as before and beyond what is written but to do so in thinking together with Others Thus the book addresses scholars and students from across the social sciences who seek challenges to established ways of thinking in academia without simply replacing one canon for another This book is for those who think of themselves as knowledge and culture laborers in this age of precarization who seek to replace the university and cognitive capitalism with a pluriversity and an infrastructure built on knowledge and culture as fundamental values

Boring Formless Nonsense Eldritch Priest,2013-04-11 Boring Formless Nonsense intervenes in an aesthetics of failure that has largely been delimited by the visual arts and its avant garde legacies It focuses on contemporary experimental composition in which failure rubs shoulders with the categories of chance noise and obscurity In these works we hear failure anew We hear boredom formlessness and nonsense in a way that gives new purchase to aesthetic philosophical and ethical questions that falter in their negative capability Reshaping debates on failure as an aesthetic category eldritch Priest shows failure to be a highly dubious concept The book frames recent experimental composition as a deviant kind of sound art whose affective and formal elements reflect on current issues in contemporary culture and offers analyses of musical works and performance practices that are rarely heard let alone considered as significant cultural phenomena showing the role that obscurity and the esoteric have in articulating current cultural realities Ambitious in content and experimental in its approach Boring Formless Nonsense will challenge and fracture your views on failure creativity and experimental music Chemical Heroes Andrew Bickford,2020-11-16 In Chemical Heroes Andrew Bickford analyzes the US military's attempts to design performance enhancement technologies and create pharmacological supersoldiers capable of withstanding extreme trauma Bickford traces the deep history of efforts to biologically fortify and extend the health and lethal power of soldiers from the Cold War era into the twenty first century from early adoptions of mandatory immunizations to bio protective gear to the development and spread of new performance enhancing drugs during the global War on Terrorism In his examination of government efforts to alter soldiers bodies through new technologies Bickford invites us to contemplate what constitutes heroism when armor becomes built in wired in and even edited into the molecular being of an American soldier Lurking in the background and dark recesses of all US military enhancement research Bickford demonstrates is the desire to preserve US military and imperial power Couplets Brian Massumi,2021-08-09 In Couplets Brian Massumi presents twenty four essays that represent the full spectrum of his work during the past thirty years Conceived as a companion volume to Parables for the Virtual Couplets addresses the key concepts of Parables from different angles and contextualizes them allowing their stakes to be more fully felt Rather than organizing the essays chronologically or by topic Massumi pairs them into couplets to encourage readers to make connections across conventional subject matter categories to encounter disjunctions and to link different phases in the evolution of his work In his analyses of topics ranging from art affect and architecture to media theory political theory and the philosophy of experience Massumi charts a field on which a family of conceptual problems plays out in ways that bear on the potentials for acting and perceiving the world As an essential guide to Massumi's oeuvre Couplets is both a primer for his new readers and a supplemental resource for those already engaged with his thought Teater, muusika, kino ,2016 Power, the Press and the Technology of Freedom Leonard R. Sussman,1989 The frightening distortion in the flow of news in most nations is here revealed by correspondents in 74 countries most of whom had to speak under the cloak of anonymity Eighty two different ways to censor are exposed Telos ,1989 A Question of Survival Hermann Giliomee,1987 United Nations Law and the Security Council Max Hilaire,2005 The activities of the Security Council have expanded tremendously since the end of the Cold War and scholarly interest on the work of the Council has also accelerated The Security Council is at the centre of the United Nations regime for maintaining international peace and security The Council is given broad enforcement powers under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations to force

states to comply with its demands Decisions of the Security Council adopted under Chapter VII take precedence over all other obligations of member states However some Security Council decisions reflect the geopolitical interests of individual Permanent Members of the Council and not necessarily the interests of the United Nations These decisions sometimes appear to conflict with United Nations Law This book surveys the manner in which the Security Council has managed international conflicts and the extent to which the Council s decisions have been consistent with United Nations Law

Security and Development in Southern Africa Nana Poku,2001-04-30 With the end of white dominated South Africa many observers have argued for a positive transformation of the whole of Southern Africa based upon market integration and increased cooperation among the states of the region Poku and the contributors to this collection re examine this optimistic scenerio and they point to the problems of translating good intentions into actual policies In reality the economic imbalance between South Africa and its neighbors poses severe problems for the region Far from finding a stronger ally in regional reconstruction and development the countries in the region are finding that for many in South Africa they simply do not matter that much The analysis points to greater polarization which may imply greater marginalization of the poorer countries in the region Moreover a major widening of the gap between the richer South Africa and some or all of the weaker economies may lead to increased tensions and breakdown of regional relations even to a situation detrimental to economic development in the region A provocative analysis by some of the leading politico economic thinkers of the region the volume will be of great use to scholars researchers and policy makers involved with Southern African development

Bangladesh and SAARC Iftekharuzzaman,Imtiaz Ahmed,1992 Papers presented at a seminar held on 23 24 August 1992 People, States and Regions Anne Hammerstad,2005 This book assesses the achievements of Southern African security integration in a comparative perspective Edited by Dr Anne Hammerstad it highlights some of the main challenges facing SADC and suggests some potential ways they could be overcome by learning from other regional initiatives It argues that of the regional organisations reviewed SADC could in particular benefit from emulating some of the practical policies developed by the Organisation for Security and Co operation in Europe to build and strengthen democratic governance and the rule of law in member states SADC would also do well to take a closer look at ECOWAS s border approach to dealing proactively with political crises in the West African region The book compares the vision of the SADC s regional security integration scheme set out in various regional agreements with its reality Then it places SADC s security integration efforts within the greater picture of the transformation of Africa s security architecture Lastly it reviews SADC s efforts in a global comparative perspective by looking at the efforts of other regional organisations such as the OSCE and the ASEAN Publisher description
