the evolving multilateral order If India seeks to affect the multilateral order how will it do so In the past it had little choice but to be content with rule taking adhering to existing international norms and institutions Will it now focus on rule breaking challenging the present order primarily for effect and seeking greater accommodation in existing institutions Or will it focus on rule shaping contributing in partnership with others to shape emerging norms and regimes particularly on energy food climate oceans and cyber security And how do India s troubled neighborhood complex domestic politics and limited capacity inhibit its rule shaping ability Despite limitations India increasingly has the ideas people and tools to shape the global order in the words of Jawaharlal Nehru not wholly or in full measure but very substantially Will India emerge as one of the shapers of the emerging international order This volume seeks to answer that question One Hundred Years of Kautilya's
