Rhetorics of Race and Religion on the Christian Right Samuel P. Perry,2019-11-20 As the first African American president Barack Obama faced unique challenges and obstacles when addressing issues of race While rhetorical attacks on the basis of race directed at Obama were not unexpected many of the most consistent racially motivated criticisms of Obama were associated with his religious identity The Jeremiah Wright controversy gave way to the birther and secret Muslim conspiracy theories while anxieties about Obama's identity proved particularly potent as modes of political attack in the context of the war on terror This book examines the ways in which those attacks often originated in the rhetoric of the Christian Right and the ways in which these theories circulated amongst the Christian Right Perry argues that the intersections of race and religion in American politics produced rhetoric that often caricatured Obama as un-American anti-Christian and an enemy of the state By exploring the arguments used to cultivate these characterizations and tracing the roots of conspiracies that worked to delegitimize Obama's religious identity through racial claims and stereotypes a clearer picture emerges of what is at stake when people can no longer separate religious convictions from political arguments

Receptive Ecumenism as Transformative Ecclesial Learning Paul D. Murray, Gregory A. Ryan, Paul Lakeland, 2022-05-26 Receptive Ecumenism asks not what other churches can learn from us but what can we learn and receive with integrity from our ecclesial others Since the publication of Receptive Ecumenism and the Call to Catholic Learning Exploring a Way for Contemporary Ecumenism OUP 2008 this fresh ecumenical strategy has been adopted critiqued and developed in different Christian traditions and in local national and international settings including the most recent bilateral dialogue of the Anglican Roman Catholic International Commission ARCIC III The thirty eight chapters in this new volume by academics church leaders and ecumenical practitioners who have adopted and adapted Receptive Ecumenism in various ecclesial and cultural contexts show how Receptive Ecumenism has grown and matured Part One demonstrates how Receptive Ecumenism itself is capable of being received with integrity into very different ecclesiologies and ecclesial traditions In Part Two this approach to transformative ecumenical learning is applied to some recurrent ecclesial problems such as the understanding and practice of ministry revealing new insights and practical opportunities Part Three examines the potential and challenges for Receptive Ecumenism in different international settings Part Four draws on scripture hermeneutics and pneumatology to offer critical reflection on how Receptive Ecumenism itself implements transformative ecclesial learning Addressing the 70th Anniversary of the World Council of Churches Archbishop Justin Welby said that One of the most important of recent ecumenical developments has been the concept of Receptive Ecumenism This volume provides an indispensable point of reference for understanding and applying that concept in the life of the Christian churches today

Living in Love and Faith The Church of England, 2020-11-09 Issues of gender and sexuality are intrinsic to people's experience their sense of identity their lives and the loving relationships that shape and sustain them The life and mission of the Church of England and of the worldwide Anglican Communion are affected by the deep and sometimes painful disagreements about these matters divisions brought into sharper focus because of society's changing perspectives and practices especially in relation to LGBTI people Living in Love and Faith sets out to inspire people to think more deeply both about what it means to be human and to live in love and faith with one another It tackles the tough questions and the divisions among Christians about what it means to be holy in a society in which understandings and practices of gender sexuality and marriage continue to change Commissioned and led by the Bishops of the Church of England the Living in Love and Faith project has involved many people across the Church and beyond bringing together a great diversity and depth of expertise conviction and experience to explore these matters by studying what the Bible theology history and the social and biological sciences have to say After a Foreword from the Archbishops of Canterbury and York the book opens with an invitation from the Bishops of the Church of England to embark on a learning journey in five parts Part One sets current questions about human identity sexuality relationships and marriage in the context of God's gift of life Part Two takes a careful and dispassionate look at what is happening in the world with regard to identity sexuality relationships and marriage Part Three explores current Christian thinking and discussions about human identity sexuality and marriage In the light of the good news of Jesus Christ how do Christians understand and respond to the trends observed in Part Two Part Four considers what it means for us as individuals and as a church to be Christ like when it comes to matters of identity sexuality relationships and marriage Part Five invites the reader into a conversation between some of the people who have been involved in writing this book who having engaged with and written Parts One to Four nevertheless come to different conclusions Amid the biblical theological historical and scientific exploration each part includes Encounters with real contemporary disciples of Christ whose stories raise questions which ask us to discern where God is active in human lives The book ends with an appeal from the Bishops to join them in a period of discernment and decision making following the publication of Living in Love and Faith The Living in Love and Faith book is accompanied by a range of free digital resources including films podcasts and an online library together with Living in Love and Faith The Course a 5 session course which is designed to help local groups engage with the resources also published by Church House Publishing

The Economist ,1893 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2006 Normativity of the Future Reimund Bieringer,2010 One of the major issues of contemporary theology is the relationship between the past and the present Many see the task of theology as the re interpretation of past traditions for today This focus pays scant attention to the future In recent years theological inquiry into the future and eschatology is surfacing In the past ten years we have developed an eschatological hermeneutics for the interpretation of biblical and other authoritative texts This hermeneutical approach integrates the past present and future dimensions of the interpretive process paying special attention to the future The first part of this book consists of three foundational articles by Reimund Bieringer and Mary Elsbernd about the approach which we have come to call normativity of the future In this part we provide the theoretical foundations of this eschatological hermeneutics The second part of this book contains contributions by Reimund Bieringer Mary Elsbernd Susan M Garthwaite Ma Marilou Ibita Didier Pollefeyt Rolando Tuazon and Thomas A Vollmer who practice this approach in the arenas of Biblical Exegesis Ethics and Religious Education
