Handbook on Politics and Society Shireen Hassim, Anna C. Korteweg, 2025-06-09 This ground breaking Handbook decentres theories of social and political arrangements originating from parochial histories of Europe and North America Connecting the politics of race class sexuality and gender it provides critical perspectives on capitalism states and political mobilisation and adopts an interdisciplinary approach to key contemporary issues in politics and society Remaking the World Jessica M. Chapman, 2023-07-25 Between 1945 and 1965 more than fifty nations declared their independence from colonial rule At the height of the Cold War the global process of decolonization complicated US Soviet relations while Soviet and American interventionism transformed the decolonizing process Remaking the World examines the connections between the Cold War and decolonization Through six carefully selected case studies India Egypt the Congo Vietnam Angola and Iran historian Jessica M Chapman addresses the shifting of Soviet American Chinese and Cuban policies the centrality of modernization the role of the United Nations the influence of regional actors like Israel and South Africa and seminal post Vietnam War shifts in the international system Each case study analyzes at least one geopolitical turning point demonstrating that the Cold War and decolonization were mutually constitutive processes in which local national and regional developments altered the superpower competition Chapman presents the complexities of international relations and the ways in which local communist and democratic movements differed from their Soviet and American ties as did their visions for independence and success Review of the state of world marine fishery resources – 2025 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, Sharma, R. (ed.); Barange, M. (ed.); Agostini, V. (ed.); Barros, P. (ed.); Gutierrez, N.L. (ed.); Vasconcellos, M. (ed.); Fernandez Reguera, D. (ed.); Tiffay, C. (ed.); Levontin, P. (ed.), Marine fisheries are crucial to the food security and nutrition economy and overall well being of coastal communities Maintaining the long term prosperity and sustainability of marine fisheries is therefore not only ecologically significant but has social economic and political importance The aim of this report is to provide FAO Members national and regional policymakers academia civil society fishers and managers of world fishery resources with a comprehensive objective and global review of the state of the living fishery resources of the oceans This document updates the regular reviews of the state of the world s marine fishery resources based on stock assessments and complementary information up to 2023 and official catch statistics through to 2021 The introductory and methodology chapters provide the wider context in which this updated edition of the Review of the state of world marine fishery resources was prepared highlighting evolutions in the landscape of fisheries and stock assessment capacities since the previous edition of this report in 2011 The methodology section gives a detailed overview of the updated FAO process for providing the state of stocks index which involved a highly participatory and transparent process including 19 regional workshops and consultations with around 650 in person experts representing 92 countries and 200 organizations Importantly the total number of stocks in the assessments included in this report has significantly increased to 2 570 Discussions on major trends and changes at the global level are explored in a dedicated global overview chapter while more detailed information on the status of stocks for each of the FAO Major Fishing Areas is set out in dedicated regional chapters Special sections address the global issue of tunas and tuna like species and other high profile fisheries such as deep sea fisheries in areas beyond national jurisdiction and highly migratory sharks Summary tables are provided for each species grouping used in this assessment indicating the number of stocks included their sustainability classification between overfished maximally sustainably fished and underfished categories and the number of stocks classified into tiers based on the availability and quality of information and thus the assessment methods used

A Short History of Modern Angola David Birmingham, 2016-05-01 This history by celebrated Africanist David Birmingham begins in 1820 with the Portuguese attempt to create a third African empire after the virtual loss of Asia and America In the nineteenth century the most valuable resource extracted from Angola was agricultural labor first as privately owned slaves and later as conscript workers The colony was managed by a few marine officers by several hundred white political convicts and by a couple of thousand black Angolans who had adopted Portuguese language and culture The hub was the harbor city of Luanda which grew in the twentieth century to be a dynamic metropolis of several million people The export of labor was gradually replaced when an agrarian revolution enabled white Portuguese immigrants to drive black Angolan laborers to produce sugar cane cotton maize and above all coffee During the twentieth century Congo copper supplemented this wealth by gem quality diamonds and by offshore oil Although much of the countryside retained its dollar a day peasant economy new wealth generated conflict which pitted white against black north against south coast against highland American allies against Russian allies The generation of warfare finally ended in 2002 when national reconstruction could begin on Portuguese colonial foundations

In the Skin of the City António Tomás, 2022-06-03 António Tomás traces the history and transformation of Luanda Angola by showing how it emerges out of the continual redefinition and negotiation of its physical and social boundaries
