Beyond Books Jenn Carson,2022-10-28 Beyond Books Adult Library Programs for a New Era takes us out of the stacks and past the traditional walls of the library to reach underserved and overworked adults in our communities adults who might not think they need the library in their lives Readers are introduced to the concept of adult programming through a multifaceted approach based on a solid foundation of behavioral science real life library experience and data on current trends in libraries and other institutions This book posits that offering diverse adult programs is an important catalyst for fostering community connection and individual wellness and that no librarian needs to deliver them alone Partnerships are not only helpful they are essential to preventing librarian burnout Themes of the book center on passive versus active programs the importance of intergenerational involvement and programs that touch a variety of topics divided by the following sections Food Drink Arts Crafts Books Writing Technology Media Health Wellness Business Finance and Nature Gardening This book provides clear step by step models and strategies for delivering adult programs both in person and online including where to find funding getting administrative and municipal buy in creating partnerships in the community addressing possible legal issues marketing tactics training staff and volunteers and how to evaluate programs Whether you're a student a brand new recruit or a seasoned public or academic librarian there will be something in this book to inspire you to move your adult library programs beyond book clubs without losing those too YC Young Children ,2008

Engaging Young Children in Museums Sharon E Shaffer,2016-06-16 What does a museum do with a kindergartner who walks through the door The growth of interest in young children learning in museums has joined the national conversation on early childhood education Written by Sharon Shaffer the founding Executive Director of the innovative Smithsonian Early Enrichment Center this is the first book for museum professionals as well as students offering guidance on planning programming for young children This groundbreaking book Explains the various ways in which children learn Shows how to use this knowledge to design effective programs using a variety of teaching models Includes examples of successful programs tested activities and a set of best practices Have Yourself a Merry Legal Christmas

David Krell,2025-10-31 Christmas has long been portrayed as a time of joy reflection and resolution balancing sentiment with spectacle Capitalizing on the holiday season Hollywood has produced a stream of films and television episodes that evoke emotion and most often end happily This book examines the legal components of these narratives exploring the laws regulations cases and legal principles in holiday themed entertainment From the bank run in It's a Wonderful Life to an eight year old defending his home against burglars in Home Alone this work reveals how law not only shapes these stories but also mirrors cultural hopes ideals and anxieties portrayed in these films We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger,2022-10-04 A richly illustrated history of self taught artists and how they changed American art Artists without formal training who learned from family community and personal journeys have long been a presence in American art But it wasn't until the 1980s with the help of trailblazing advocates that the collective force of their creative vision and bold self definition permanently changed the mainstream art world In We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger traces the rise of self taught artists in the twentieth century and examines how despite wide ranging societal racial and gender based obstacles they redefined who could be rightfully seen as an artist and revealed a much more diverse community of American makers Lavishly illustrated throughout We Are Made of Stories features more than one hundred drawings paintings and sculptures ranging from the narrative to the abstract by forty three artists including James Castle Thornton Dial William Edmondson Howard Finster Bessie Harvey Dan Miller Sister Gertrude Morgan the Philadelphia Wireman Nellie Mae Rowe Judith Scott and Bill Traylor The book centralizes the personal stories behind the art and explores enduring themes including self definition cultural heritage struggle and joy and inequity and achievement At the same time it offers a sweeping history of self taught artists the critical debates surrounding their art and how museums have gradually diversified their collections across lines of race gender class and ability Recasting American art history to embrace artists who have been excluded for too long We Are Made of Stories vividly captures the power of art to show us the world through the eyes of another Published in association with the Smithsonian American Art Museum Exhibition Schedule Smithsonian American Art Museum
