Daybreaks Daniel Horan, 2018 Lent is a time to find the joy of God's light in even the darkest moments of the forty days following Ash Wednesday It is a time to seek the joy in life and the gifts of God's grace as we prepare to celebrate the death and resurrection of the Lord For while it may seem like we're never going to escape the darkness that casts its shadow over us at a given moment we're reminded that the light of Christ remains with us always The light of Christ illumines our lives and symbolizes the company of a loving God who will show us the way forward But we have to choose to live as children of light For each day of Lent through the Octave of Easter author Daniel P Horan OFM helps guide us to find the joy of God's light in even the darkest moments of the forty days of Lent until we move toward the joy of Easter      Daybreaks for Lent and Easter Valerie Schultz, 2011      Daybreaks Kenneth Davis, 2008-12 Any other day of the year a dirty face would mortify us but today it fortifies us Any other day a dirty forehead would be like egg on your face But today is not any other day today is the first day of forty in the Crucified's embrace From Ash Wednesday Lent is for those of us who do everything wrong except believe Christ loves us We question our faith are shocked at the temptations we feel find ways to rationalize financial risks we even enjoy that bite of steak just before recalling It's a Friday in Lent Lent is not for those who have reached human perfection but for those who have to believe in Jesus salvation Begin each day this Lenten season with a Daybreaks meditation Find a quiet place where you can be open to the peaceful presence of God These reflections take only a few moments of your day Allow time for the words to sink in for the message to unfold Consider how these ideas might change your life challenge your attitudes and beliefs and inform your heart Lent is a season of conversion This is the journey of Lent and Easter Conventual Franciscan Kenneth G Davis <http://www.kennethgdavis.com> home is an expert on sin Since God is an expert on forgiveness the two get along pretty well Fr Davis also talks a lot so it is fortunate that as a priest he is called
