Being White Karyn D. McKinney,2013-04-15 Karyn McKinney uses written autobiographies solicited from young white people to empirically analyze the contours of the white experience in U S society This text offers a unique view of whiteness based on the rich data provided by whites themselves writing about what it means to be white 'For those who've come across the seas...' Andrew Jakubowicz, Christina Ho,2014-02-15 European Union Non-Discrimination Law and Intersectionality Anna Lawson,2016-07-22 This book contributes to a critical reflection of current legislative and jurisprudential developments in Non Discrimination Law focusing on the European Union The book is focused on intersectionality between gender race and disability and the question of whether and to what extent this intersection can be adequately addressed in EU law The discussion rests on two basic assumptions First the multiplication of discrimination grounds in EU law and other legal regimes should not result in a dilution of the demands of equality law Accordingly the book focuses on the three key grounds race gender and disability These constitute nodes around which other discrimination grounds can be grouped Second any multi ground non discrimination law framework needs to engage with the question of discrimination on several grounds This book provides a critical evaluation of some of the problems presented by such intersectionality and an opportunity to explore the issues in depth This collection offers some new proposals relating to the regrouping of identity categories and to the general approach to socio legal research in the field It also contains a comparative section which expands on practical experiences with intersectionality and law and a section dedicated to juridical responses to intersectionality The book will be a valuable resource for researchers academics and those working in the area of EU non discrimination law and policy
