The International Community and Statebuilding Patrice McMahon, Jon Western, 2012-02-07 This book brings together policymakers and academics to analyse the international community's performance in post war statebuilding projects. In the past twenty years statebuilding has emerged as a centerpiece of international efforts to stabilize violent conflicts. From the Balkans to Iraq to Afghanistan it has become widely accepted that statebuilding defined as the development of transparent and accountable political institutions stable and sustainable economic structures professional public administrations and civilian controlled security services is essential to the long term stability of post conflict settlements. The International Community and Statebuilding brings together senior level policymakers and academics in order to analyse the international community's performance in post war statebuilding projects. Filling an important gap in the existing body of work on this topic the contributors explore how international state builders have attempted to negotiate the intersections of multilateralism competing strategic priorities and agendas organizational complexity and domestic politics. This book will be of much interest to students of statebuilding peacebuilding war and conflict studies and International Relations in general.

Handbook on Intervention and Statebuilding Nicolas Lemay-Hébert, 2019-12-27 This innovative Handbook offers a new perspective on the cutting edge conceptual advances that have shaped and continue to shape the field of intervention and statebuilding. Biopolitics, Governmentality and Humanitarianism Volha Piotukh, 2015-04-10 This book critically analyses the changing role and nature of post Cold War humanitarianism using Foucault's theories of biopolitics and governmentality. It offers a compelling and insightful interpretation of the policies and practices associated with new humanitarianism in general as well as of the dynamics of two specific international assistance efforts the post 2001 conflict related assistance effort in Afghanistan and the post 2000 Chernobyl related assistance effort in Belarus. The central argument of the book is that new humanitarianism represents a dominant regime of humanitarian governing informed by globalising neoliberalism and is reliant on a complex set of biopolitical disciplinary and sovereign technologies. It demonstrates that while the purposes of humanitarian governing are specific to particular contexts its promise of care is more often than not accompanied by sovereign and or biopolitical violences. Making an important contribution to existing scholarship on humanitarian emergencies and humanitarian action on biopolitics and governmentality this book will be of much interest to students and scholars of humanitarianism critical security studies governmentality and International Relations generally. The Globalization of World Politics John Baylis, Steve Smith, Patricia Owens, 2008 Now in its fourth edition this internationally successful text has been fully revised and updated in light of recent developments in world politics with new chapters on the changing nature of war human security and international ethics. A comprehensive introduction to international relations it is ideally suited to students coming to the subject for the first time. It provides a coherent accessible and lively account of the globalization of world politics. FEATURES Contains work from an impressive line up of international contributors who are experts in their fields the chapters have been carefully edited in order to ensure an integrated and coherent style throughout the book Covers history theory structures and processes and international issues Offers a visually stunning 4 color interior Enhanced by a comprehensive Companion Website www.oup.com/uk/orc/bin/9780199297771 that includes a test bank PowerPoint slides case studies multiple choice questions links to journal articles a flashcard glossary and new to this edition video clips video pod casts of contributors and a news feed NEW TO THIS EDITION Three new chapters on the changing nature of war human security and international ethics Each chapter includes a 400 word case study More examples from the developing world Humanitarian Intervention Terry Nardin, Melissa S. Williams, 2005-12-01 Somalia Haiti Bosnia and Kosovo All are examples where humanitarian intervention has been called into action This timely and important new volume explores the legal and moral issues which emerge when a state uses military force in order to protect innocent people from violence perpetrated or permitted by the government of that state Humanitarian intervention can be seen as a moral duty to protect but it is also subject to misuse as a front for imperialism without regard to international law In Humanitarian Intervention the contributors explore the many questions surrounding the issue Is humanitarian intervention permitted by international law If not is it nevertheless morally permissible or morally required Realistically might not the main consequence of the humanitarian intervention principle be that powerful states will coerce weak ones for purposes of their own The current debate is updated by two innovations in particular the first being the shift of emphasis from the permissibility of intervening to the responsibility to intervene and the second an emerging conviction that the response to humanitarian crises needs to be collective coordinated and preemptive The authors shed light on the timely debate of when and how to intervene and when if ever not to Contributors Carla Bagnoli Joseph Boyle Anthony Coates Thomas Franck Brian D Lepard Catherine Lu Pratap Bhanu Mehta Terry Nardin Thomas Pogge Melissa S Williams and Kok Chor Tan Transitional Justice in South Asia Tazreena Sajjad, 2013-08-21 Offering a comparative case study of transitional justice processes in Afghanistan and Nepal this book critically evaluates the way the local is consulted in post conflict efforts toward peace and reconciliation It argues that there is a tendency in transitional justice efforts to contain the discussion of the local within religious and cultural parameters thus engaging only with a static local as interpreted by certain local stakeholders Based on data collected through interviews and participant observation carried out in the civil societies of the respective countries this book brings attention to a dynamic local where societal norms evolve and realities on the ground are shaped by shifting power dynamics local hierarchies and inequalities between actors It suggests that the local must be understood as an inter subjective concept the meaning of which is not only an evolving and moving target but also dependent on who is consulted to interpret it to external actors This timely book engages with the divergent range of civil society voices and offers ways to move forward by including their concerns in the efforts to help impoverished war torn societies transition from a state of war to the conditions of peace Oxford Textbook of Global Public Health Roger Detels, Martin

Gulliford,Quarraisha Abdool Karim,Chorh Chuan Tan,2017 Sixth edition of the hugely successful internationally recognised textbook on global public health and epidemiology comprehensively covering the scope methods and practice of the discipline Worldmark Encyclopedia of National Economies: Asia & the Pacific Sara Pendergast,Tom Pendergast,2002 The 4 vol Worldmark Encyclopedia of National Economies satisfies this need for a comprehensive up to date economic information about foreign companies It provides students and business leaders with a thorough understanding of the current and historical economic development of foreign nations

Ethics, Law and Natural Hazards Lauren

Traczykowski,2021-03-08 This book argues that the international community has a moral duty to intervene on behalf of a population affected by a natural hazard when their government is either unable or unwilling to provide basic life saving assistance The work draws on law international relations theory and political philosophy to articulate that non response to a natural hazard is unethical In providing policy suggestions the author articulates what should happen based on an ethical analysis Readers will thus gain an ethical lens with which to view intervention in the aftermath of a natural hazard The book encourages readers to consider the nuances of arguments from various disciplines about whether or not intervention is appropriate Whilst arguing throughout that an intervention policy in response to natural hazards should be developed by the international community the study also accounts for why intervention should only be used in very limited situations This interdisciplinary approach makes the book essential reading for researchers academics and policy makers working in the areas of international law humanitarian studies human rights international relations and political science
