Breaking Free From the Shame of Addiction Amanda Harms, 2023-07-10 Do you feel trapped in a cycle of addiction and feelings of unworthiness The cage of shame prevents millions of lives from achieving their full spiritual potential The shame that stems from addiction can lead you into feeling unworthy of love or support Attempting to cope with that lack of connection often propels you back to your addiction which deepens the feelings of shame and accelerates the spiral It s time to break that cycle Whether your addiction involves drugs alcohol pornography gambling or any other vice you have the power to reclaim your life and accept the Lord s help to achieve your divine potential With nearly a decade of experience in the mental health field addiction counselor and Latter day Saint author Amanda Harms provides the skills and tools you need to help you break free from shame in your efforts to triumph over addiction These principles include a mix of clinically proven mental exercises and doctrinally supported methods for deepening your relationship with Christ Take that first step to dismantling shame today and trust that God stands with loving hands outstretched ready to guide you the rest of the way on your journey of change

Fragments for Fractured Times Nicola Slee, 2020-09-30 If ever a period of time felt fractured it is now Whichever way we turn we witness the dismembering and fracturing of many previously taken for granted realities with maps and borders physical and metaphorical being redrawn before our eyes What place for the feminist practical theologian in such a climate In Fragments for Fractured Times one of the world s leading feminist practical theologians Nicola Slee brings together 15 years of papers articles talks and sermons many of them previously unpublished Collected from diverse times places settings and occasions Slee offers an introduction to each fragment holding it up to the light and examining its size shape texture and pattern Drawing on a wide and diverse range of her writing Slee demonstrates the richness and variety of feminist practical theological writing What feminist theology brings to the table of scholarly thinking and embodied practice is she suggests something creative artful prophetic as well as playful a resource for Christian living and thinking in fractured times

Servantship Graham Joseph Hill, 2013-10-10 Servantship is essentially about following our Lord Jesus Christ the servant Lord and his mission it is a life of discipleship to him patterned after his self emptying humility sacrifice love values and mission Servantship is humbly valuing others more than yourself and looking out for the interests and wellbeing of others Servantship is the cultivation of the same attitude of mind Christ Jesus had making yourself nothing being a servant humbling yourself and submitting yourself to the will and purposes of the triune God Since servantship is the imitation of Christ it involves an unreserved participation in the missio Dei the Trinitarian mission of God In this pioneering work sixteen servants describe the four movements of radical servantship Servantship is the movement 1 from leadership to radical servantship 2 from shallowness to dynamic theological reflection 3 from theories to courageous practices and 4 from forgetfulness to transforming memory Servantship recognizes in word thought and deed that whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant and whoever wants to be first must be your slave just as the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many      Living in Love and Faith The Church of England, 2020-11-09 Issues of gender and sexuality are intrinsic to people's experience their sense of identity their lives and the loving relationships that shape and sustain them The life and mission of the Church of England and of the worldwide Anglican Communion are affected by the deep and sometimes painful disagreements about these matters divisions brought into sharper focus because of society's changing perspectives and practices especially in relation to LGBTBI people Living in Love and Faith sets out to inspire people to think more deeply both about what it means to be human and to live in love and faith with one another It tackles the tough questions and the divisions among Christians about what it means to be holy in a society in which understandings and practices of gender sexuality and marriage continue to change Commissioned and led by the Bishops of the Church of England the Living in Love and Faith project has involved many people across the Church and beyond bringing together a great diversity and depth of expertise conviction and experience to explore these matters by studying what the Bible theology history and the social and biological sciences have to say After a Foreword from the Archbishops of Canterbury and York the book opens with an invitation from the Bishops of the Church of England to embark on a learning journey in five parts Part One sets current questions about human identity sexuality relationships and marriage in the context of God's gift of life Part Two takes a careful and dispassionate look at what is happening in the world with regard to identity sexuality relationships and marriage Part Three explores current Christian thinking and discussions about human identity sexuality and marriage In the light of the good news of Jesus Christ how do Christians understand and respond to the trends observed in Part Two Part Four considers what it means for us as individuals and as a church to be Christ like when it comes to matters of identity sexuality relationships and marriage Part Five invites the reader into a conversation between some of the people who have been involved in writing this book who having engaged with and written Parts One to Four nevertheless come to different conclusions Amid the biblical theological historical and scientific exploration each part includes Encounters with real contemporary disciples of Christ whose stories raise questions which ask us to discern where God is active in human lives The book ends with an appeal from the Bishops to join them in a period of discernment and decision making following the publication of Living in Love and Faith The Living in Love and Faith book is accompanied by a range of free digital resources including films podcasts and an online library together with Living in Love and Faith The Course a 5 session course which is designed to help local groups engage with the resources also published by Church House Publishing      Holy Hype Susan H. Sarapin, Pamela L. Morris, 2022-01-13 Holy Hype Religious Fervor in the Advertising of Goods and the Good News defines and explores the intersection of the sacred religious symbols themes and rhetoric within the profane realm of advertising and promotion Susan H Sarapin and Pamela L Morris trace the historical overlap of consumer and religious ideologies in society offering detailed examples of its use throughout history through analyses of over a hundred collected advertisements from monks selling copiers to billboard messages from God to angels and the worship of vodka Throughout the book the authors continually evaluate if and when the technique of holy hype is effective through its use of recognizable sacred symbols that capture audiences attentions and inspire both positive and negative emotions Scholars of communication media studies religion advertising and cultural studies will find this book particularly useful      The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2005
