Abstracts, 2001 Mobile News Andrew Duffy, Rich Ling, Nuri Kim, Edson Tandoc, Jr., Oscar Westlund, 2020-12-17 The rise of the smartphone has shifted news from fixed publication to a flow of updateable information The chapters in this book investigate the implications for audiences industry and society as news becomes mobile Wherever we go news from anywhere can reach us on our smartphones And wherever we are we can search up information specific to that place News is produced by mobile journalists MoJos as well as by citizens armed with smartphones reporting breaking news from crisis zones where information is uncertain or hyperlocal news from neighbourhoods where little happens Mobile technology allows citizens to engage deeply with a cause or to skim headlines so they know a little about a lot of things News is distributed on mobile networks and consumed by mobile audiences as they make their daily way through time and space coloured by their mobile devices It is consumed in the niches of life It intersects with place in new ways as geolocated news It pursues us wherever we are through push notifications And news has moved from fixed to fluid a flow of updateable information rather than a regularly issued product In this book the contributors take varied viewpoints on mobility and news its impact on what news is how journalists produce it and how it fits into everybody s everyday life The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Digital Journalism      Graphic Agitation 2 Liz McQuiston,2004-07-06 A survey of social and political graphics since the early 1990s      The Search for Justice Kumari Jayawardena,Kishali Pinto-Jayawardena,2016-11-21 The Sexual Violence and Impunity in South Asia research project coordinated by Zubaan and supported by the International Development Research Centre brings together for the first time in the region a vast body of knowledge on this important yet silenced subject Six country volumes one each on Bangladesh Nepal Pakistan Sri Lanka and two on India as well as two standalone volumes comprising over fifty research papers and two book length studies detail the histories of sexual violence and look at the systemic institutional societal individual and community structures that work together to perpetuate impunity for perpetrators The essays in this volume examine history and contemporary politics to understand the root causes of sexual violence in Sri Lanka They look at the polarization created around ethnic and linguistic identities during the three decades of ethnic conflict but also scrutinize the routine violence of communities towards their own women in daily life The authors argue that in this transitional post war phase Sri Lankan women must not only be treated as victims but as agents of change The writers highlight a hitherto unaddressed aspect of sexual violence that of the structures that enable impunity on the part of perpetrators be they security personnel and paramilitary forces members of armed rebel groups gangs local politicians and police or ordinary citizens including close family members They demonstrate how impunity for perpetrators is both a failure of the formal justice process and a product of individual community and social conditions and indeed the choices that victims and families make that promote silence over truth At the end of more than a quarter century of conflict that has left some 100 000 dead 50 000 women headed households struggling to survive as well as countless victims and survivors of sexual violence the calls for justice can no longer be ignored      Twenty-First Century Color Lines Andrew Grant-Thomas,Gary Orfield,2009 Exploring the multiracial multiethnic line for the new century

Nongovernmental Politics Michel Feher,2007-04-25 The past present and future prospects of nongovernmental politics political activism that withdraws from traditional government but not from the politics associated with governing To be involved in politics without aspiring to govern without seeking to be governed by the best leaders without desiring to abolish all forms of government such is the condition common to practitioners of nongovernmental politics Whether these activists concern themselves with providing humanitarian aid monitoring human rights violations protecting the environment educating consumers or improving the safety of workers the legitimacy and efficacy of their initiatives demand that they forsake conventional political ambitions Yet even as they challenge specific governmental practices nongovernmental activists are still operating within the realm of politics Composed of scholarly essays on the challenges and predicaments facing nongovernmental activism profiles of unique and diverse NGOs including Memorial Global Exchange World Vision and

Third World Network and interviews with major nongovernmental actors Gareth Evans of International Crisis Group Anthony Romero of the ACLU Rony Brauman of M decins sans Fronti res and Peter Lurie of Public Citizen among others this book offers a groundbreaking survey of the rapidly expanding domain of nongovernmental activism It examines nongovernmental activists motivations from belief in the universality of human rights to concerns over the fairness of corporate stakeholders claims and explores the multiple ways in which nongovernmental agencies operate It analyzes the strategic options available and focuses on some of the most remarkable sites of NGO action including borders disaster zones and the Internet Finally the book analyzes the conflicting agendas pursued by nongovernmental advocates protecting civil society from the intrusions of governments that lack accountability or wresting the world from neo liberal hegemony on the one hand and hastening the return of the Savior or restoring the social order prescribed by the Prophet on the other
