Secret Spaces: Sacred Treasures in England 1066-1320 Lesley Milner, 2024-05-27 The medieval treasure house consisting of sacristy vestry and treasure rooms was the depository for the ecclesiastical treasure belonging to a church holy vessels vestments altar hangings candlesticks and priceless liturgical books and reliquaries It was carefully designed to convey the message of its status and function A book devoted to these medieval museums which housed such precious materials is long overdue Ironically the interest in the objects that they conserved has often resulted in ecclesiastical treasure being removed to new museums leaving their former places of protection in need of protection themselves

The Medieval Hospital

Nicole R. Rice,2023-04-15 Nicole Rice's original study analyzes the role played by late medieval English hospitals as sites of literary production and cultural contestation The hospitals of late medieval England defy easy categorization They were institutions of charity medical care and liturgical commemoration At the same time hospitals were cultural spaces sponsoring the performance of drama the composition of medical texts and the reading of devotional prose and vernacular poetry Such practices both reflected and connected the disparate groups regular religious ill and poor people well off retirees that congregated in hospitals Nicole Rice's The Medieval Hospital offers the first book length study of the place of hospitals in English literary history and cultural practice Rice highlights three English hospitals as porous sites whose practices translated into textual engagements with some of urban society's most pressing concerns charity health devotion and commerce Within these institutions medical compendia treated the alarming bodies of women and religious anthologies translated Augustinian devotional practices for lay readers Looking outward religious drama and socially charged poetry publicized and interrogated hospitals caring functions within urban charitable economies Hospitals provided the auspices audiences and authors of such disparate literary works propelling these texts into urban social life Between ca 1350 and ca 1550 English hospitals saw massive changes in their fortunes from the devastation of the Black Death to various fifteenth century reform initiatives to the creeping dissolutions of religious houses under Henry VIII and Edward VI This volume investigates how hospitals defined and defended themselves with texts and in some cases reinvented themselves using literary means to negotiate changed religious landscapes

Space, Place and Religious Landscapes Darrelyn

Gunzburg,Bernadette Brady,2022-03-24 Exploring sacred mountains around the world this book examines whether bonding and reverence to a mountain is intrinsic to the mountain constructed by people or a mutual encounter Chapters explore mountains in England Scotland Wales Italy Ireland the Himalaya Japan Greece USA Asia and South America and embrace the union of sky landscape and people to examine the religious dynamics between human and non human entities This book takes as its starting point the fact that mountains physically mediate between land and sky and act as metaphors for bridges from one realm to another recognising that mountains are relational and that landscapes form personal and group cosmologies The book fuses ideas of space place and material religion with cultural environmentalism and takes an interconnected approach to material religio landscapes In this way it fills the gap between lived religious traditions personal reflection phenomenology historical context environmental philosophy myths and performativity In defining material religion as active engagement with mountain forming and humanshaping landscapes the research and ideas presented here provide theories that are widely applicable to other forms of material religion

The Medieval Art, Architecture and History of Bristol

Cathedral Jon Cannon,2011 Bristol Cathedral formerly the abbey of St Augustine is a remarkable building To medievalists it is an enigmatic and compelling place filled with important work of various periods work that raises crucial questions about style patronage and the intentions behind medieval architecture This is especially true of the controversial and spectacular east end one of the most significant structures of its period in Europe This volume is a major contribution to the history of the church when it was St Augustine s Abbey Scholars focus on each successive period of the history of the church including the most detailed discussions to date of later medieval history and architecture and papers on the dating attribution patronage and historiography of the east end The editors also draw out the wider themes and lessons suggested by the building matters of interest to all medievalists and historians of medieval art

American Sanctuary Louis P. Nelson,2006 This volume examines a diverse set of spaces and buildings seen through the lens of popular practice and belief to shed light on the complexities of sacred space in America Contributors explore how dedication sermons document shifting understandings of the meeting house in early 19th century Connecticut the changes in evangelical church architecture during the same century and what that tells us about evangelical religious life the impact of contemporary issues on Catholic church architecture the impact of globalization on the construction of traditional sacred spaces the urban practice of Jewish space nature worship and Central Park in New York the mezuzah and domestic sacred space and finally the spiritual aspects of African American yard art

Cathedral Jon Cannon,2007 Glastonbury Anthony Roberts,1992

The Stones of Britain Jon Cannon,2025-10-16 This is the definitive tale of how our island history is written in stone The Stones of Britain is about how rocks make places exploring the connection between geology and landscape the stones beneath the surface and the history that has played out above it It movingly investigates the diverse character of the British landscape and the rich variety of places that have come to be as a result We discover that the shattered granite landscape of Dartmoor is different from the soft red sandstone hills of east Devon the rolling chalk downs distinct from the gritty moors of Yorkshire and each has a unique fascinating story to tell Interweaved with beautiful meditations on place home and belonging The Stones of Britain interprets these stories It explains the nature of place on the island of Britain revealing the landscape as the joint product of geology and man an extraordinary history rooted in stone Jon Cannon 1962 2023 was an architectural historian lecturer and Canon Historian for Bristol Cathedral and also worked for the Royal Commission on the Historical Monuments of England and English Heritage

Unfortunately Jon passed away in the process of making this book but his passion for landscape history and culture lives on and leaps defiantly off the page culminating in a richly researched and hugely special offering
