

Beginner's Guide to Meditation

Pick a time.

Can you make time for two minutes in the morning before work, in the evening after dinner, or before bed?

Go somewhere quiet.

Try to meditate at home in a quiet spot. If you're at work, try going outside and sitting on a park bench or under a tree.

Sit somewhere comfortable.

At home, you can sit on the couch, in a chair, or lay back on the floor. Don't lay down if you're feeling sleepy. Sit on a cushion or pillow. Try to keep your back straight and shoulders relaxed.

Breathe deeply and slowly.

Start with four counts in through your nose, and four counts out. Close your eyes and imagine a bright blue sky, and focus on the blue. If thoughts start to arise, imagine they're clouds. Acknowledge them and let them drift away.

Don't fight the clouds.
