Fighting between Christians and Muslims in the medieval period is often seen in the narrow context of the battle for the Holy Land Other points of conflict tend to be ignored But as David Nicolle s thought provoking survey shows the religions clashed across the medieval world in the Mediterranean and the Iberian peninsula in the Near East in Central Asia India the Balkans Anatolia Russia the Baltic and Africa Over 500 years the struggle in each theatre of conflict had its own character methods of warfare differed and developed in different ways and were influenced by local traditions and circumstances And these campaigns were not waged solely against Christian or Islamic enemies but against pagan non Christian or non Islamic peoples As he tells the story of Crusade and Jihad and describes the organization and tactics of the armies involved David Nicolle opens up a new understanding of the phenomenon of holy war      United States from the Discovery of the North American Continent Up to the Present Time Julian Hawthorne, 1894      History of the United States of America James Schouler, 1894
