The background of the title is a black and white abstract graphic. It features a large, dark, curved band that sweeps from the top left towards the bottom right. A smaller, lighter grey curved band runs parallel to it, slightly below. In the upper right quadrant, there is a white circle with a thin black outline. The overall effect is dynamic and modern.

Context in Literary and Cultural Studies Jakob Ladegaard, Jakob Gaardbo Nielsen, 2019-06-24 Context in Literary and Cultural Studies is an interdisciplinary volume that deals with the challenges of studying works of art and literature in their historical context today. The relationship between artworks and context has long been a central concern for aesthetic and cultural disciplines and the question of context has been asked anew in all eras. Developments in contemporary culture and technology as well as new theoretical and methodological orientations in the humanities once again prompt us to rethink context in literary and cultural studies. This volume takes up that challenge. Introducing readers to new developments in literary and cultural theory, Context in Literary and Cultural Studies connects all disciplines related to these areas to provide an interdisciplinary overview of the challenges different scholarly fields today meet in their studies of artworks in context. Spanning a number of countries and covering subjects from nineteenth century novels to rave culture, the chapters together constitute an informed, diverse and wide ranging discussion. The volume is written for scholarly readers at all levels in the fields of Literary Studies, Comparative Literature, Cultural Studies, Art History, Film, Theatre Studies and Digital Humanities.

Queere Männlichkeiten Nicholas Maniu, 2023-04-03 Die zeitgenössische Ikonographie queeren männlichen Begehrrens ist das Produkt einer Schichtung und Sedimentierung vergangener Konzeptionen von Geschlecht und Sexualität. Nicholas Maniu analysiert ebendiese wechselhafte Diskursgeschichte von tradiertter und devianter Männlichkeit sowie Homo Sexualität. Ausgehend von der Gedankenfigur des Palimpsests legt er die zwischen Oppression und Emanzipation oszillierende Diskursivierung queerer Männlichkeit dar. Von der Pederastie über die Sodomie bis hin zur Pathologisierung verfolgen die Geister der Vergangenheit den homosexuellen Mann bis heute und prägen unweigerlich seine Bilder.

A Companion to Feminist Art Hilary Robinson, Maria Elena Buszek, 2019-10-22 Original essays offering fresh ideas and global perspectives on contemporary feminist art. The term feminist art is often misused when viewed as a codification within the discipline of Art History, a codification that includes restrictive definitions of geography, chronology, style, materials, influence and other definitions inherent to Art Historical and museological classifications. Employing a different approach, A Companion to Feminist Art defines art as a dynamic set of material and theoretical practices in the realm of culture and feminism as an equally dynamic set of activist and theoretical practices in the realm of politics. Feminist art therefore is not a simple classification of a type of art but rather the space where feminist politics and the domain of art making intersect. The Companion provides readers with an overview of the developments, concepts, trends, influences and activities within the space of contemporary feminist art in different locations, ways of making and ways of thinking. Newly commissioned essays focus on the recent history of and current discussions within feminist art. Diverse in scope and style, these contributions range from essays on the questions and challenges of large sectors of artists such as configurations of feminism and gender in post-Cold War Europe to more focused conversations with women artists on Afropean decoloniality. Ranging from discussions of essentialism and feminist aesthetics to examinations of political activism and curatorial practice the Companion informs and questions readers introduces new concepts and fresh perspectives and illustrates just how much more there is to discover within the realm of feminist art Addresses the intersection between feminist thinking and major theories that have influenced art theory Incorporates diverse voices from around the world to offer viewpoints on global feminisms from scholars who live and work in the regions about which they write Examines how feminist art intersects with considerations of collectivity war maternal relationships desire men and relational aesthetics Explores the myriad ways in which the experience of inhabiting and perceiving aged raced and gendered bodies relates to feminist politics in the art world Discusses a range of practices in feminism such as activism language education and different ways of making art The intersection of feminist art making and feminist politics are not merely components of a unified whole they sometimes diverge and divide A Companion to Feminist Art is an indispensable resource for artists critics scholars curators and anyone seeking greater strength on the subject through informed critique and debate Surrealism and Ecology Anne Marie Butler ,Donna Roberts,Iveta Slavkova,2026-01-06

Surrealism and Ecology is the first volume to consider the intersections of these two fields It addresses the contribution of the avant gardes in thinking about the relationship of humans with their environment in the context of massive environmental upheaval in the twentieth century This volume explores the significant role of Surrealist artists and writers within the history of critical thinking about nature and environment over the last hundred years It approaches ecology both as a mode of thinking about the many interconnections of life and as a way of experiencing and knowing the world The relationship of humans with their environment is of paramount significance within contemporary discourse and the contribution of the historical avant gardes to this topic remains largely underexplored In addressing this gap the book presents a diverse selection of analyses of the ways in which the Surrealists have thought about and represented nature and the human place within it It emphasises how Surrealism's interventions in connecting seemingly distinct domains of thought and phenomena can be understood as relevant to more recent developments in the practice of ecological thought Surrealist practices and the academic field of Surrealism studies are broad in scope and include not only visual art but also poetry and literature film philosophy exhibition design and experimental practice This volume includes contributions from established and developing scholars working across disciplines and locations who address such varied practices and engage with analyses from multiple perspectives The international and trans Atlantic history of Surrealism is well represented in this book with over half the texts exploring the work of European Surrealists in exile during the Second World War or the art and environmental and political activism of Surrealists in the Caribbean and throughout the Americas Monumental cares Mechtild Widrich,2023-01-31 Monumental cares rethinks monument debates site specificity and art activism in light of problems that strike us as monumental or overwhelming such as war migration and the climate crisis The book shows how artists address these issues from Chicago and Berlin to Oslo Bucharest and Hong Kong in media ranging from marble and glass to postcards graffiti and re enactment A multidirectional theory of site does justice to specific places but also to how far away audiences see them What emerges is a new ethics of care in public art combined with a passionate engagement with reality harking back to the realist aesthetics of the nineteenth century Familiar questions can be answered anew what to do with monuments particularly when they are the products of terror and require removal modification or recontextualisation And can art address the monumental concerns of our present Gaming Utopia Claudia Costa Pederson,2021-04-06 In Gaming Utopia Ludic Worlds in Art Design and Media Claudia Costa Pederson analyzes modernist avant garde and contemporary video games to challenge the idea that gaming is an exclusively white heterosexual male corporatized leisure activity and reenvisions it as a catalyst for social change By looking at over fifty projects that together span a century and the world Pederson explores the capacity for sociopolitical commentary in virtual and digital realms and highlights contributions to the history of gaming by women queer and transnational artists The result is a critical tool for understanding video games as imaginative forms of living that offer alternatives to our current reality With an interdisciplinary approach Gaming Utopia emphasizes how game design creation and play can become political forms of social protest and examines the ways that games as art open doors to a more just and peaceful world alternative press index ALTERNATIVE PRESS INDEX,2002
