The Arden Research Handbook of Shakespeare and Adaptation Diana E. Henderson, Stephen O'Neill, 2022-03-24

The Arden Research Handbook of Shakespeare and Adaptation explores the dynamics of adapted Shakespeare across a range of literary genres and new media forms. This comprehensive reference and research resource maps the field of Shakespeare adaptation studies, identifying theories of adaptation, their application in practice, and the methodologies that underpin them. It investigates current research and points towards future lines of enquiry for students, researchers, and creative practitioners of Shakespeare adaptation. The opening section on research methods and problems considers definitions and theories of Shakespeare adaptation and emphasises how Shakespeare is both adaptor and adapted. A central section develops these theoretical concerns through a series of case studies that move across a range of genres, media forms, and cultures to ask not only how Shakespeare is variously transfigured, hybridised, and valorised through adaptational play but also how adaptations produce interpretive communities and within these potentially new literacies modes of engagement and sensory pleasures. The volume's third section provides the reader with uniquely detailed insights into creative adaptation with writers and practice-based researchers reflecting on their close collaborations with Shakespeare's works as an aesthetic, ethical, and political encounter. The Handbook further establishes the conceptual parameters of the field through detailed practical resources that will aid the specialist and non-specialist reader alike, including a guide to research resources and an annotated bibliography.

From Diapers to Doctorate Dollar Free Dr Chinwe Njoku, 2021-02-28 Imagine getting an all-expenses-paid education up to and beyond a PhD. You know you have what it takes to reach the pinnacle of your academic aspirations. Yet your country's leaders have not invested in her education sector. It is very depressing to know you deserve top quality education but cannot afford it no matter how long you save for. Very competitive scholarships and bursaries are now the only doors through which you can gain the education you deserve. From winning the National Mathematical Centre Scholarship in high school to the 5-year Shell Scholarship for her undergraduate degree at the University of Lagos, the Loughborough University African Development Trust Scholarship for her MSc, crowned with a fully funded PhD, Dr Chinwe Njoku has enjoyed academic freedom from financial disadvantages of her family background. And her new book, From Diapers to Doctorate Dollar Free, will guide you on your quest to secure funding for your international studies.
