Scholarship and Christian Faith Douglas Jacobsen, Rhonda Hustedt Jacobsen, 2004-04-08 This book enters a lively discussion about religious faith and higher education in America that has been going on for a decade or more. During this time many scholars have joined the debate about how best to understand the role of faith in the academy at large and in the special arena of church related Christian higher education. The notion of faith informed scholarship has of course figured prominently in this conversation. But argue Douglas and Rhonda Jacobsen the idea of Christian scholarship itself has been remarkably under discussed. Most of the literature has assumed a definition of Christian scholarship that is Reformed and evangelical in orientation a model associated with the phrase the integration of faith and learning. The authors offer a new definition and analysis of Christian scholarship that respects the insights of different Christian traditions e g Catholic Lutheran Anabaptist Wesleyan Pentecostal and that applies to the arts and to professional studies as much as it does to the humanities and the natural and social sciences. The book itself is organized as a conversation. Five chapters by the Jacobsens alternate with four contributed essays that sharpen illustrate or complicate the material in the preceding chapters. The goal is both to map the complex terrain of Christian scholarship as it actually exists and to help foster better connections between Christian scholars of differing persuasions and between Christians and the academy as a whole.

Emergent Health Communication Scholarship from and about African American, Latino/a/x, and American Indian/Alaskan Native Peoples

Angela Cooke-Jackson, 2024-02-15 This book presents research by African American Latino a x and Alaskan Indian Native American AI AN communication scholars. It highlights the importance of communication and the recognition of the unique experiences that impact how health information and health care are understood through diverse racial and cultural perspectives. Each chapter advances various divergent health issues and disparities pertinent to Black Latino a x and AI AN communities so that the powerful aspect of the human condition to know and be known as it relates to the negotiation of health and communication can be clearly understood. Contributions to this volume unabashedly call for more equitable community centric tribally centered and transparent scholarship on topics of health disparities health care marginality medical mistrust social justice and media and new technology as it relates to people of color. The authors in this book are committed to research areas that invigorate and reimagine conversations among clinicians public health professionals classroom environments and communities. This insightful volume seeks to shift the dominant culture paradigms and locate authors of color and their research experiences and scholarship as central to their work. It provides a space to amplify the voices of our collective lived experiences through the vehicle of rigorous engaged scholarship. The book was originally published as a special issue of Health Communication.

How to Be the Best Third Wheel Loridee De Villa, 2022-05-03 It s the last year of highschool and everything has changed. After a summer spent in the Philippines with her family Lara Dela

Cruz is eager to start her senior year and most importantly reunite with her three besties Carol Jasmine and Kiera. Of course summer is the season of change and Lara knew she'd have to get caught up on the major updates hot gossip and other shenanigans she may have missed But what she did not expect was to show up on the first day of school to all three of her friends now in relationships The mushy public displays of affection and lunches spent gushing about their new boyfriends has Lara quickly realizing her last year of high school is nothing like she imagined Since she's been back Lara's long time frenemy James has become impossibly annoying Sure they are now both third wheels but why is he asking her to tutor him in classes And why after they start spending more time together does she begin to notice how cute he looks when he smiles uh oh Fighting for the attention of her best friends catching some pretty new and confusing feelings for James and wading through the pressures post high school plans all have Lara reeling And to make matters worse Lara's beautiful and untrustworthy cousin conveniently appears and wiggles her way right between her and James budding relationship Feeling like a third wheel in more ways than one Lara must learn to accept that change is inevitable love is complicated and being the odd one out is sometimes where inner power is found

Dispatches from the Threshold Rae Baker,Alexander Ferrer,2025-03-18T00:00:00Z

Dispatches from the Threshold is an emergent archive of the burgeoning movement for housing justice in North America and beyond Housing insecurity turned catastrophic during the COVID 19 pandemic exposing the cruelty of threadbare tenant protections and state hostility toward unhoused people made worse by mass unemployment a public health crisis and racist police violence Since 2020 tenants have successfully fought back against evictions and encampment policing pushed their governments to extend and fortify eviction moratoria strengthened tenants rights and protections for unhoused people and thought beyond strategies that primarily appease landlords and lenders At the same time the urgent work of stemming immediate eviction displacement and surveillance has sat in tension with long haul movement work and cross movement organizing This book brings together activists scholars and legal practitioners directly involved in tenant organizing to contextualize and catalogue the traction and tensions of the movement across seventeen cities in five countries Contributors connect housing justice to struggles against criminalization surveillance and policing and to debates about social reproduction precarity organized labour abolitionist praxis and political strategy These dispatches are as much a chronicle of organizing in a moment of crisis as an invitation to build solidarities across movements to ensure enduring justice for all With contributions from Vancouver Victoria Toronto Winnipeg Detroit Philadelphia Minneapolis Newark Atlanta San Francisco
