Units of Study for Teaching Writing Lucy Calkins, 2006 This series of books is designed to help upper elementary teachers teach a rigorous yearlong writing curriculum Teaching Middle School Writers Laura Robb, 2010 My whole goal with this book was to come at teaching writing from the angle that matters most students perspective They taught me what I needed to know to make this book live up to their passion for writing Laura Robb Adolescents have robust and rewarding writing lives outside of school that involve journals emails text messages blogs and an astounding array of genres Unlike their personal reading lives that teachers frequently tap into their personal writings typically exist under the curricular radar that is until now While grounded in the common schedule constraints and curriculum demands of middle school Laura Robb's Teaching Middle School Writers offers teachers lessons and routines that are uncommonly attuned to adolescents developmental and social needs As she taps into the energy and enthusiasm of adolescents personal writing lives Laura presents writing plans that support first drafts strategies for crafting leads that grab and endings that satisfy grammar lessons that address writing conventions editing lessons that have students revise their writing before the teacher reads it guidelines for grading and responding to student work Straight from the classroom writing samples and videos give teachers the opportunity to see how Laura uses compelling questions and powerful mentor texts to teach writing support struggling writers and weave twenty first century literacies into the writing curriculum Throughout teachers learn ways of connecting to students lives in order to bring out their best writing their best self Watch a video overview A Field Guide to the Classroom Library Lucy Calkins, 2002 Provides comprehensive and accessible leveled lists and guides for 1 200 children's trade books for kindergarten through 6th grade to help teachers build classroom libraries Stories of Sports Crystal L. Beach, Katie Shepherd Dredger, Katherin Garland, Cathy Leogrande, 2021-03-12 Stories of Sports Critical Literacy in Media Production Consumption and Dissemination discusses how media demonstrates privilege policing stereotypes confirmation bias and objectification in a world where the role of athletics in Western society speaks to privilege and power Contributors use a critical media lens to analyze texts including newspapers magazines film television social media and sportscasts to demonstrate to readers the ways in which sports stories reinforce or disrupt patterns of power and the ways that power is enacted This book questions the role of the sports industrial complex in our society and argues that while healthy competition and physical health can come from bodily exertion corruption can contaminate these benefits with the wielding of influence and the acquisition of cultural and financial capital Contributors examine how the ways that resources are allocated the coverage of certain sports and athletes and how viewers view competitive arenas speak to power and privilege in ways that can affect both athletes and athletic stakeholders highlighting the importance of critically examining sports media Scholars of media studies and sports will find this book particularly useful The No-nonsense Guide to Teaching Writing Judy A. Davis, Sharon E. Hill, 2003 Filled with specific details and examples this book describes the organization of a successful yearlong writing workshop for grades 3 to 8 Fluent Writing Denise Leograndis, 2006 Are you puzzled by pacing According to the NCEE standards as well as some state standards it's an essential writing skill But what is pacing And how do you teach it Denise Leograndis has the answers to those questions and in Fluent Writing she shares with you how this seemingly new area of instruction offers a breakthrough opportunity to improve your students writing Books for You
