is being done in worship when national holidays are celebrated the American flag is displayed and honored and songs are sung that extol the nation Are these benign gestures Or could they actually be idolatrous In this insightful and persuasively argued study Craig M Watts contends the inclusion of elements of American nationalism in worship is detrimental to the integrity of Christian worship He maintains that in faithful worship the story of Jesus must be re presented and performed in such a way that the only affections and loyalty that are fostered are those Christians everywhere rightfully share To do otherwise opens the door to idolatry and leaves the church doing what Watts calls bowing toward Babylon He reviews the development of the symbols songs and gestures that celebrate America and how they were introduced into worship Watts concludes that the spirituality of American Christian nationalism does not complement the faith of the church but distorts it hindering global Christian unity and the peaceable witness of the church in a divided world *Proceedings of the ...
