Scientific Realism in Studies of Reading Alan D. Flurkey,Eric J. Paulson,Kenneth S. Goodman,2008

This book provides research based insights that deepen and broaden current understandings of the nature of reading Informed by psycholinguistic and sociolinguistic views of reading as meaning construction the studies build on principles of scientific realism an approach to inquiry that incorporates and values a wide variety of methods of observation to find the most inclusive ecologically valid description of the reading process as it is observed in a variety of contexts from a wide range of perspectives Focusing on how facts are discovered developed and used in the construction of knowledge about reading a data driven and theory driven construction that results from observing the reading process with a variety of tools methods disciplines and conceptual frameworks scientific realism goes beyond rationalism and experimentation to include studies of events and experiences but still satisfies even the most narrow definitions of what state and national lawmakers refer to as reliable and replicable research on reading Each study in this volume breaks ground for a new line of reading research underpinned by the theory of reading based in scientific realism Scientific Realism in Studies of Reading is directed to reading researchers teacher educators reading specialists special educators graduate students and related education professionals in the disciplines of applied psycholinguistics and sociolinguistics and is appropriate as a text for advanced courses in these areas Latina and Latino Voices in Literature for Children and Teenagers Frances Ann Day,1997

Highlighting the lives and careers of writers whose cultural roots are embedded in a variety of racial ethnic regional and religious traditions the book not only makes it easier to locate their work it provides insights into their writing styles motivations and points of view Me Llamo Maria Isabel Alma Flor Ada,Harcourt School Publishers Staff,Kathryn Dyble Thompson,1997-01-01 Third grader Mar a Isabel born in Puerto Rico and now living in the U S wants badly to fit in at school The teacher s writing assignment My Greatest Wish gives her that opportunity Multicultural Literature for Latino Bilingual Children Ellen Riojas Clark,Belinda Bustos Flores,Howard L. Smith,Daniel Alejandro González,2015-11-25 While there are volumes that fall into the category of children s literature there appears to be relatively few that explore the needs of bilingual learners and the linguistic and sociocultural context of Latino children s literature This volume makes a needed contribution by addressing the social cultural academic and linguistic needs of Latino bilingual learners who are still underserved through current school practices We aim to conceptualize different forms of social knowledge so that they can serve as cultural resources for learning acquiring knowledge and transforming self and identity This volume presents a balance of theory research and practice that speak to authentic multicultural Latino literature and helps ensure its availability for all students The intended outcome of this volume then is to create a heightened awareness of the cultural and linguistic capital held by the Latino community to increase Latino students social capital through the design of critical pedagogical practices and for the formulation of a new perspective that of Latino multicultural literature for children
