Ethics, Information, and Technology Richard N. Stichler, Robert Hauptman, 1998 In this collection of essays leaders and icons in the emerging field of information ethics Marc Rotenberg Senator Patrick Leahy Nadine Strossen John Stuart Mill Kirkpatrick Sale Susan Hallman and 15 others discuss the challenges associated with advances in technology The essays are divided into five subject areas freedom of information and the pursuit of knowledge information technology and education information rights and social justice ethics and the Internet and professional ethics The writers come from many backgrounds e.g. librarians lawyers and lawmakers and academics and provide a variety of views on the value of information and its ethical dimension in an increasingly technological age The essays have been drawn from many periodicals including Library Journal Daedalus The Nation Journal of Information Ethics and Wired The Internet of Animals Deborah Lupton, 2023-03-07 The internet is made of cats is a half jokingly made claim Today animals of all shapes and sizes inhabit our digital spaces including companion animals wildlife feral animals and livestock In this book Deborah Lupton explores how digital technologies and datafication are changing our relationships with other animals Playfully building on the concept of The Internet of Things she discusses the complex feelings that have developed between people and animals through the use of digital devices from social media to employing animal like robots as companions and carers The book brings together a range of perspectives including those of sociology cultural geography environmental humanities critical animal studies and internet studies to consider how these new digital technologies are contributing to major changes in human animal relationships at both the micropolitical and macropolitical levels As Lupton shows while digital devices and media have strengthened people's relationships to other creatures these technologies can also objectify animals as things for human entertainment therapy or economic exploitation This original and engaging book will be of interest to scholars and students across the social sciences and humanities Art and Science Stephen R. Graybard, 1986 This volume brings together a distinguished collection of thinkers to consider the complex relation and divergence between art and science How art and science relate to technology why they should be thought relevant to morality and what their study can possibly contribute to the understanding of the nature of the mind are only a few of the subjects explored in these pages Daedalus , 1986

Preliminary Remarks on the Meme and the Text Geoffrey B. Waldschmidt, 2004 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art , 1870 The Living Age , 1871 Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell, Robert S. Littell, 1871 Business World , 2004-05 Littell's Living Age , 1871 Indiana Pharmacist , 1889 The Leather Workers' Journal , 1911 The Face Mask In COVID Times Deborah Lupton, Clare Southerton, Marianne Clark, Ash Watson, 2021-04-19 The simple fabric face mask is a key agent in the fight against the global spread of COVID 19 However beyond its role as a protective covering against coronavirus infection the face mask is the bearer of powerful symbolic and political power and arouses intense emotions Adopting an international perspective informed by social theory The Face Mask in COVID Times A Sociomaterial Analysis offers an intriguing and original investigation of the social cultural and historical dimensions of face masking as a practice in the age of COVID Rather than Beck's risk society we are now living in a COVID society the long term effects of which have yet to be experienced or imagined Everything has changed The COVID crisis has generated novel forms of sociality and new ways of living and moving through space and time In this new world the face mask has become a significant object positioned as one of the key ways people can protect themselves and others from infection with the coronavirus The face mask is rich with symbolic meaning as well as practical value In the words of theorist Jane Bennett the face mask has acquired a new thing power as it is coming together with human bodies in these times of uncertainty illness and death The role of the face mask in COVID times has been the subject of debate and dissension arousing strong feelings The historical and cultural contexts in which face masks against COVID contagion are worn or not worn are important to consider In some countries such as Japan and other East Asian nations face mask wearing has a long tradition Full or partial facial coverings such as veiling is common practice in regions such as the Middle East In many other countries including most countries in the Global North most people beyond health care workers have little or no experience of face masks They have had to learn how to make sense of face masking as a protective practice and how to incorporate face masks into their everyday practices and routines Face masking practices have become highly political The USA has witnessed protests against face mask wearing that rest on sovereign individualism a notion which is highly specific to the contemporary political climate in that country Face masks have also been worn to make political statements bearing anti racist statements for example but also Trump campaign support Meanwhile celebrities and influencers have sought to advocate for face mask wearing as part of their branding while art makers museums designers and novelty fashion manufacturers have identified the opportunity to profit from this sudden new market Face masks have become a fashion item as well as a medical device both a way of signifying the wearer's individuality and beliefs and their ethical stance in relation to the need to protect their own and others health The Face Mask in COVID Times A Sociomaterial Analysis provides a short and accessible analysis of the sociomaterial dimensions of the face mask in the age of COVID 19 The book presents seven short chapters and an epilogue We bring together sociomaterial theoretical perspectives with compelling examples from public health advice and campaigns anti mask activism as well as popular culture news reports blog posts videos online shopping sites art works to illustrate our theoretical points and use Images to support our analysis Business Week,2008 Shecky's Girlshop Guide to NYC Shopping Girlshop,2003-08 New York's Great Industries Richard Edwards,1884 The MBA Career Guide ,1995
