Migrations Of The Heart An Autobiography:

Migrations of the Heart Marita Golden, 1983 Migrations of the Heart Marita Golden, 1983 Distinguished author and television executive Marita Golden writes movingly about her life first as a black activist in the sixties in her hometown Washington D C then as a journalism student in New York In those turbulent years she gained a profound understanding of what it means to be black in America While studying in America she met Femi an African man They fell in love and she journeyed to Nigeria to become his wife In Africa plunged into a culture so very different from her own but one she felt she should understand Marita Golden learned about both her own new sprawling Nigerian family and Nigeria s large American community But Femi once her strength began to insist she fit herself into the strict mold of his society and assume the submissive role of a Nigerian wife In her new strange surroundings Marita Golden discovered that home is not simply a destination but rather something you must carry always inside you A marvelous journey powerful imagery distinctly drawn characters come alive events pulsate with energy The Washington Post Book World CLA Journal College Language Association (U.S.), 1982

The African American National Biography: Dihigo-Gwynn Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2008 An 8 volume reference set containing over 4 000 entries written by distinguished scholars The African American National Biography is the most significant and expansive compilation of black lives in print today The Literature of Immigration and Racial Formation Linda Joyce Brown, 2004-09-22 This work examines early twentieth century literature about women immigrants in order to reveal the differing ways that American racial categories and identities particularly that of whiteness were textually and socially constructed at the beginning of the twentieth century

Black Writers Sharon Malinowski, 1994 This text presents comprehensive coverage of more than 400 of the most studied black authors from the Harlem Renaissance social and political activists and foreign black writers of interest to American Audiences Yiddish Revolutionaries in Migration Frank Wolff, 2020-12-15 This ground breaking history of the General Jewish Labour Bund in migration investigates how the organisation transformed itself from a revolutionary protagonist in early twentieth century Russia to a socialist institution of secular Jewish life and yidishkayt for Jews in North and South America By following thousands of activists paths from the shtetls of Eastern Europe to the working class Yiddish neighbourhoods of New York and Buenos Aires Frank Wolff traces the networks that connected these revolutionaries on both sides of the Atlantic resulting in a richly detailed social history of this seminal transnational movement This book was first published in 2014 as Neue Welten in der Neuen Welt Die transnationale Geschichte des Allgemeinen J dischen Arbeiterbundes 1897 1947 by B hlau Verlag K ln ISBN 978 3412222116 Black Writers Linda Metzger, 1989 Biographical and bibliographical entries on some 400 black authors active in the 20th century Some of the sketches are updated from Gale s Contemporary authors series others were written especially for this volume Covers not only contemporary American authors but also earlier 20th century writers social figures e g Malcolm X Desmond Tutu and important African and

Caribbean writers In addition to the descriptive personal and career information there are illuminating biographical critical essays including comments often by the authors themselves on personal interests aspirations motivations and thoughts on writing Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Autobiographies by Americans of Color 1980-1994 Rebecca Stuhr,1997 This bibliography provides extensive descriptive annotations of nearly 500 autobiographies published by Americans of color during the years 1980 and 1994 The authors of these narratives range from established writers such as Nikki Giovanni Maxine Hong Kingston and Richard Rodriguez to unknown writers compelled to relate their part in the civil rights movement recall their family history as sharecroppers recount experiences in the Japanese internment camps or in Indian boarding schools or describe their struggle to succeed and contribute despite immense hardship and difficulty Among these autobiographies the reader will also find those of sports celebrities actors explorers and entrepreneurs This bibliography brings together at one access point an important body of work making it possible for the reader or researcher to identify and locate these books either through booksellers or through libraries This volume constitutes volume one of a two book series volume two is titled Autobiographies by Americans of Color 1995-2000 The Autobiography of a Parader Without a Permit Endesha Ida Mae Holland,1986 Contains a discussion of Afro American women s autobiographies and a dramatized autobiography form Migration and Education in a Multicultural World U. Kelly,2009-02-16 Arising from the legacies of the twentieth century unprecedented worldwide migration unrelenting global conflict and warring unchecked materialist consumption and unconscionable environmental degradation are important questions about the toll of loss such changes exact individually and collectively As large scale and ubiquitous as these changes are their deep specificity re inscribes the importance of place as a critical construct Attending to such specificity emphasizes the interconnections between contexts and broader movements and remains a prudent route to articulating critical interconnections among places and peoples in complex times This book of essays turns to such specificity as a means to examine the inflections of migration on identity displacement disorientation loss and difference as sites of both regression and possibility Fusing autobiography and cultural analysis it provides a framework for a critical education attuned to such concerns The Greenwood Encyclopedia of African American Literature: D-H Hans A. Ostrom,J. David Macey,2005 Designed to meet the needs of high school students undergraduates and general readers this encyclopedia is the most comprehensive reference available on African American literature from its origins to the present Other works include many brief entries or offer extended biographical sketches of a limited selection of writers This encyclopedia surpasses existing references by offering full and current coverage of a vast range of authors and topics While most of the entries are on individual authors the encyclopedia gathers together information about the genres and geographical and cultural environments in which these writers have worked and the social political and aesthetic movements in which they have participated Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical and cultural forces that have shaped African American writing Publisher Forced Migration and

Sport Ramón Spaaij, Carla Luguetti, Nicola De Martini Ugolotti, 2023-10-17 This book aims to extend and deepen conversations among scholars policymakers and practitioners about the role of sport in relation to contexts and issues of forced migration The chapters in this volume critically analyse and interrogate the implications of existing approaches practices and research around sport and forced migration across five themes 1 participatory methodologies power voice and ethics 2 emotions and embodiment 3 gendered socio ecological and intersectional perspectives 4 critical perspectives on integration and intercultural communication and 5 fandom and media representations of forced migrants in elite sport It does so by engaging with complex yet necessary dialogues and perspectives that cross disciplinary boundaries and by not shying away from conceptual and ethical tensions that interrogate concepts methodologies policies and forms of representation regarding forced migrants experiences and contributions to global sporting cultures The book provides key contributions to advance critical scholarly analyses and inform applied interventions on the ground and will be beneficial to researchers and advanced students of Sports Sociology and Politics This book was originally published as a special issue of Sport in Society
