Ministry With The Sick:

Ministry with the Sick Church Publishing, Episcopal Church, Morehouse Church Resources, 2005 This pocket sized edition of a pastoral staple will include official new rites of the Episcopal Church. Included are prayers, litanies and other material that address medical conditions that were either unknown or not publicly talked about when the Prayer Book was revised in the 1970s. Some of these include the termination of life support, difficult treatment choices, loss of memory and survivors of abuse and violence. Ministry to the Sick Church of England, 2000 Taken from the Church of England's Common Worship liturgy, this large print booklet contains the text of The Celebration of Holy Communion at Home or in Hospital, Laying on of Hands with Prayer and Anointing, Emergency Baptism, Ministry at the Time of Death, Additional Prayers with Dying People and Prayers for Protection and Peace. And You Visited Me Charles W. Gusmer, 1984 Extreme unction and last rites are no longer a part of the Church's ministry to the sick and dying according to Father Charles Gusmer. Today communal celebration frames sacramental experience. In the rites for the sick and dying, this experience is the paschal mystery working in the life of the seriously ill Christian in the community. Priests, deacons and students of liturgy will find this work a sourcebook for understanding the development of the rites and a guide in the ritual praxis. Suggestions for ministerial implementation are made in the context of information now available from liturgical scholarship and modern scientific research on sickness and death. Ministry to the Sick, 1983 Christian Ministry to the Sick Tom Coyle, 1986

Ministry with the Sick and Dying Anglican Church of Australia, Broughton Publishing, 2006 Ministry with the Sick and Dying draws our attention to the spiritual needs of God's people in pressured times especially when we face death. This edition gathers the relevant ministry resources from APBA in an accessible and unobtrusive way for the use of ministers in the home, hospital or other setting to respond to need in sickness and dying. Enriching Our Worship 2 Episcopal Church, Church Publishing Incorporated, 2000 Prepared by the Standing Commission on Liturgy and Music and adopted by the 73rd General Convention, this new set of materials was adapted from sources in scripture, a variety of contemporary prayer books throughout the Anglican Communion, traditional materials from Orthodox and medieval western sources and hymnody of various American cultures. Newly written texts and some texts from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer which have been revised are also included. Ministry to the Sick Episcopal Church, 1988 The Ministry to the Sick, 1923*

Anointing of the Sick and the Healing Ministry Austin Echemba, 2006 Through its practice of healing down the ages the Church has been able to inculcate the Christian message but not without the risks of the manipulation of the divine power which have gone with these practices. Throughout its long history, anointing of the sick has almost constantly oscillated between physical and spiritual effects. This book critically examines the manifold practices of healing which flourish today in our midst especially in Nigeria. It emphasizes the teaching of the Church on healing and the healing power of the sacraments and proposes the inculcation of the ritual of anointing the sick that will be truly Christian and authentically African.
