Mission to Asia Christopher Dawson, Medieval Academy of America, 1980-01-01 Previously published as The Mongol Mission by Sheed and Ward Ltd 1980     The Mission to Asia Christopher Dawson (ed.), 2007     Mission to Asia Christopher Dawson, 1966     Mission in Context: In Search of Asian Strategic Communication of the Gospel Thang Deih Lian Davidlianno, 2018-05-09 There is a profusion of missional issues emerging in the Asian fields that call Christ's followers to actively witnessing the Truth Missionaries from different continents have come to serve the Asian nations and yet these God's loving missionaries effectiveness often seem to have left in the shade by some damaging fruits and sometimes being too much of Westernness stemming from a diversity of lacking knowledge particularly the local contexts to contextualize and lack of preparation The irrefutable finding is appealing within the Asian mission study in regard to the essentiality in equipping the Christians so that the ministries in Asia will experience the effectiveness in cultivating the diverse contexts cultures with the text Scripture they have Many principles and practical information from this book grew out of the authors experiences and the reflection of Missiologists and scholars such as Andrew Walls Christopher Wright Kazoh Kitamori Paul Hiebert etc     Mission to Asia Christopher Dawson, 1955     Mission History of Asian Churches Timothy K. Park, 2011-06-01 Mission History of Asian Churches is a collection of academic essays expounding and exploring the growing Asian missionary movement that began more than a century ago Presented at the Second International Forum of the Asian Society of Missiology these essays explore the mission history of Asian nations like China India the Indochina region Indonesia Korea the Philippines and Singapore as well as the cross cultural works of Asian missions and missionaries This book is a springboard to an in depth discussion and analysis of the genesis and expansion of the cross cultural missionary movements in Asia It presents the coming of age of the Asian church as demonstrated by its way of participating in the Great Commission of Christ and its significant contributions to world mission amidst struggles and adversities     The Unoccupied Mission Fields of Africa and Asia Samuel Marinus Zwemer, 2019-02-27 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant     Kingdom Partnerships for Synergy in Missions

William D. Taylor,1994-06-01 The church missions community must move beyond superficial fellowship and simple networking to true partnerships cooperative ventures and the sharing of resources This will result in synergy a phenomenon where the output is greater than the sum of its parts Twenty two missions leaders from around the world speak candidly to these issues and call us to reflection relationship and engagement without which the nations of this world will not be disciplined for Christ     Asia-Church in Mission James H. Kroeger,1999     The China Mission Hand-book ,1896

Understanding Asian Mission Movements Kang San Tan,Jonathan Ingleby,Simon Cozens,2011 The rise of Asian mission poses important questions to the global Church How can we best relate to these burgeoning Asian mission movements What can we learn from them What models of partnership mutual support and resourcing are appropriate on both sides This book presents the papers from three Asian Mission Consultations held at Redcliffe College in Gloucester between 2008 and 2010 which brought together mission leaders and practitioners from Asian and non Asian missions to interact with these questions

Studies in Asian Mission History, 1956-1998 Arnulf Camps,2000-02-15 In this volume the miscellaneous writings of Arnulf Camps are published They deal with the activities of Catholic missionaries during the last five centuries in nine countries situated between Turkey and Japan This research focussed on the discovery of hidden unknown or forgotten sources New insights were gained into the reception of the Christian faith in China and Japan the missionary efforts to enter the Mogul Empire the composition of the first Sanskrit grammar by a western scholar the controversial study of Islam by a Franciscan missionary in China the vain attempt to enter Afghanistan by Mill Hill missionaries the pioneering work of the founder of Catholic education in Kandy the policy and practice of establishing local churches in China India and Vietnam and the missionary reform by the first Apostolic Delegate in China Missiologists and historians will find in this book new material as well as new insights     Saint Paul and His Missions Constant Henri Fouard,1900     Missions and Politics in Asia

Robert Elliott Speer,1898     On Being The Antioch Of Asia W M Syn, Has Singapore been living up to its call as the Antioch of Asia What happens when churches carry out their missions programs without partnering with missions organisations Is it healthy for churches to apply popular trends or ideas in missions across different cultural fields In On Being the Antioch of Asia W M Syn speaks to 60 missions leaders and pastors about the health of mission practices in Singapore s churches While churches seem to be embracing Singapore s call to be the Antioch of Asia by sending out more missionaries their lack of partnership with missions organisations and short term strategies has also led to a host of problems that are negatively affecting the Singapore mission system This book examines the effectiveness of popular trends and ideas in missions highlights areas that need strengthening and proposes a new model of missions partnership between local churches and agencies in order to enable Singapore to fulfil its call as the Antioch of Asia effectively     God's Mission in Asia Ken Christoph Miyamoto,2007-06-15 Ecumenism in postwar Asia institutionalized in the Christian Conference of Asia displayed a remarkable this worldliness from its inception in the 1940s This tendency was in contrast to the tension between the church centric and world centric approaches to Christian mission that marked conciliar mission thinking in the West This work examines the development of such this worldly holiness in Asian ecumenism focusing on M M Thomas of India and C S Song from Taiwan Special attention is drawn to the idea of God s this worldly presence that considers God as redemptively at work in world history apart from the church The study first compares the development of this worldly holiness in the West and Asia and then examines the thinking of Thomas and Song The chapters on these two theologians discuss their backgrounds the basic concerns motivating their intellectual searches and responses to the questions arising from such concerns These chapters also try to understand how these theologians view the relationship between God and the world In so doing the study highlights the significance of the idea of God s this worldly presence shared by Thomas and Song in spite of differences in their backgrounds approaches and theological formulations Having compared Thomas and Song the study concludes that the idea of God s this worldly presence became central to Asian ecumenism because it offered a common unifying vision to Asian Christians who come from a region characterized by tremendous diversity The idea helped them to see the diverse peoples cultures and religions in Asia under one God who transcends the diversity and still takes it seriously
