God's Messenger Peter H. Oettli, 2008 God's Messenger is a new biography of the North German missionary Rev J F Riemenschneider who settled in the Taranaki region in the first half of the nineteenth century. The book places him into the historical and social context which not only illuminates his life and work but throws new light on aspects of nineteenth century New Zealand history. The book outlines Riemenschneider's upbringing in North Germany, his arrival in New Zealand and setting up of a missionary station in Taranaki, rifts between the missionary and his people, his exile from Taranaki and setting up in Otago. Distinctively Baptist Essays on Baptist History Walter B. Shurden, 2005 This collection of essays by different authors is presented as a tribute to Walter B. Buddy Shurden, distinctively Baptist church historian, teacher, preacher, author, Baptist apologist extraordinaire. The rationale of this celebration of the lifework and influence of Walter Shurden is well stated for example in editor Marc Jolley's preface: During some of the initial forays of our most recent and ongoing Fundamentalist Moderate controversy there were days when I thought about changing denominations. Shurden's works were instrumental in my remaining a Baptist not because I could see how Baptists had always had controversies and survived although that is true but because he helped me understand that the reason I had been a Baptist and would remain so was due to our Baptist distinctives, our freedoms. For so much more but especially for that understanding I am forever grateful. Many students Baptists in the pews some at the pulpit or lectern even some who are not distinctively Baptist could testify in like terms regarding the ongoing work and influence of Walter B. Shurden. The essays in this collection of course address some of the primary concerns of Walter Shurden augmenting that already significant lifework.
