Watt, 1986-07-25 This book suggests ideas for sharing literature that may be utilized in developing a scope and sequence of literature experiences for children in grades K-5 For primary grades K-2 the activities are primarily arranged through sharing the works of a particular author or illustrator Through this deliberate exploration the child begins to know that person as a friend So he is excited about new books by that same author or illustrator and discusses books on a level not often achieved if authors are approached only haphazardly Those included represent a variety of classic and current authors and illustrators too good to miss who have made a particular contribution to literature for young people Children and Books Zena Sutherland, May Hill Arbuthnot, 1977 Uitvoerig gedocumenteerd handboek met als uitgangspunt de wereld van het kind Na de inleidende hoofdstukken over jeugdliteratuur worden genres jeugdboeken behandeld en tevens het werken met kinderen en boeken De nadruk ligt op algemene gegevens en hedendaagse tendensen NICEM Index to Nonprint Special Education Materials, Multimedia Learner Volume National Information Center for Educational Media, National Information Center for Special Education Materials, 1979 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1952 Using Children's Literature Across the Curriculum Catherine M. O'Callaghan, 2011 This resource uniquely offers preservice and inservice teachers templates for using quality children's literature to implement six themes across grades K-8 The themes are based on national curriculum standards and text sets are carefully selected to facilitate discussion analysis and problem solving across the grades Using Children's Literature Across the Curriculum provides teachers with a guide to using multilayered texts to facilitate students attainment of critical literacy It is designed to be a supplemental text to guide teachers in designing literacy instruction The instructional sequence includes collaborative inquiry activities across the curriculum to extend each theme to math science technology and social studies Teachers are shown how to incorporate family literacy with a component entitled Home School Connections and to differentiate instruction for individual learners with a section entitled On Your Own Activities The theme concludes with a critical literacy activity that applies the content knowledge of the theme with collaborative inquiry A unique feature of the handbook is the emphasis on performance based assessment with each instructional sequence containing two rubrics for the teacher to implement The instructional sequences are meant as models for teachers to use in developing their own themes in order to facilitate critical literacy. These models can be adjusted to fit the reading level of the students as teachers become more familiar with the text's structure and their students' needs. Childcraft: Make and do, 1989. Illustrated articles, stories, and poems grouped thematically in fifteen volumes under titles including World and Space, About Animals, How Things Work, and Make and Do.
