Overbooked The Exploding Business Of Travel And Tourism:

Overbooked Elizabeth Becker, 2016-02-23 Travel is no longer a past time but a colossal industry arguably one of the biggest in the world and second only to oil in importance for many poor countries One out of 12 people in the world are employed by the tourism industry which contributes 6.5 trillion to the world's economy To investigate the size and effect of this new industry Elizabeth Becker traveled the globe She speaks to the Minister of Tourism of Zambia who thinks licensing foreigners to kill wild animals is a good way to make money and then to a Zambian travel guide who takes her to see the rare endangered sable antelope She travels to Venice where community groups are fighting to stop the tourism industry from pushing them out of their homes to France where officials have made tourism their number one industry to save their cultural heritage and on cruises speaking to waiters who earn 60 a month then on to Miami to interview their CEO Becker's sharp depiction reveals travel as a product nations as stewards Seeing the tourism industry from the inside out the world offers a dizzying range of travel options but very few quiet getaways

When the World Closed Its Doors Edward Alden, Laurie Trautman, 2025-01-07 In When the World Closed Its Doors Edward Alden and Laurie Trautman tell the story of how nearly every country in the world shut its borders to respond to an external threat during the COVID 19 pandemic They detail the consequences of the COVID border restrictions and explain why governments used their harshest containment measures on those coming from outside A sweeping overview of the re bordering of the world after 2020 this synthetic wide angle view of a singular shock to the international systems of travel and migration will be necessary reading for anyone interested in international migration and border policy

Crossing Boundaries Aziz Abu Sarah, 2020-07-14 An essential strategy book for how to have transformative sustainable responsible travel experiences starting at your own front door Recognized Peacemaker and National Geographic Explorer Aziz Abu Sarah shows how by crossing boundaries we can heal our world from stereotypes prejudice and ignorance Whether you're planning future travels or exploring the diverse cultures in your own community Crossing Boundaries provides strategies for growth and getting out of your comfort zone Moving between inspirational stories humorous anecdotes and helpful conflict resolution tips Abu Sarah guides you through having personal meaningful experiences with people from different backgrounds He sketches a vision of a kind of travel with the power to help heal the divides of a world polarized by seemingly intractable conflicts Abu Sarah argues that transformative travel can start at home He knows this firsthand a former Palestinian radical he shares his own moving story of creating connections across his divided hometown of Jerusalem and of co founding a tour agency with a Jewish American Today they direct Dual Narrative Tours co led by guides from different communities in countries like Israel and Palestine Ireland and Northern Ireland North and South Vietnam and many others Drawing on these experiences Abu Sarah's book offers tips on how to meet people naturally and safely design an inclusive itinerary shop to support the local economy deal with setbacks and much more A guide for going beyond museums and monuments this book is for both the first timer and seasoned veteran

Abu Sarah shows that if you put down your phone and strike up a conversation you can break through the walls that separate people. You'll discover shared values build lasting relationships and realize that far more unites us than divides us.

Exploring Vacation and Etiquette Themes in Social Studies Cynthia Williams Resor, 2017-03-08 This book introduces a thematic approach to social history that connects the past to the daily lives of students. Historical overviews of vacation and manners spanning from the ancient world to twentieth century United States provide detailed context for the teacher. Emphasize issues related to social class, sex and gender, and popular culture, and examine the methods of social historians. Four unique primary source sets, reading guides, and essential compelling questions for students are provided that encourage inquiry learning and the development of critical literacy skills aligned with the Common Core Standards for Literacy and the College Career and Civic Life C3 Framework for Social Studies State Standards. Each themed chapter includes suggestions for extending each theme to current events, the local community through place-based education, and across content areas for interdisciplinary instruction. The final chapter provides guidance on how to research additional historical themes, locate relevant primary sources, and prepare themed lessons and units.

Tourism Management Clare Inkson, Lynn Minnaert, 2018-03-31 An introductory text that gives its reader a strong understanding of the dimensions of tourism, the industries of which it is comprised, the issues that affect its success, and the management of its impact on destination economies, environments, and communities. Now in a full colour design, the new edition features a clear focus on the issues affecting 21st century tourism, providing students with extensive coverage on the effects of globalisation and global conflict, sustainability, and climate change, developments in digital technology, and the rise of the sharing economy. International case studies and snapshots: mini case studies are used throughout and have been taken from around the globe, including the US, China, Russia, Gambia, Bhutan, Cuba, Singapore, New Zealand, Australia, Caribbean, Canada, and the UK, and from companies including TUI, Airbnb, and Marriott. The accompanying Online Resources include PowerPoint slides and an Instructor's Manual for lecturers, and additional case studies, useful video links, and web links for students. Suitable for students new to tourism studies.
