Thurman,2005 Heated words cool malice deadly feuds the furious rush of adrenaline anger is clearly the most destructive of the seven deadly sins It can ruin families wreck one's health destroy peace of mind and at its worst lead to murder genocide and war In Anger Robert A F Thurman best selling author and one of America's leading authorities on Buddhism and Eastern philosophy offers an illuminating look at this deadliest of sins In the West Thurman points out anger is seen as an inevitable part of life an evil to be borne not overcome There is the tradition of the wrathful God of Jesus driving the money changers from the temple If God can be angry how can men rid themselves of this destructive emotion Thurman shows that Eastern philosophy sees anger differently Certainly it is a dreadful evil one of the three poisons that underlie all human suffering But Buddhism teaches that anger can be overcome Indeed the defeat of anger is not only possible but also the only thing worth doing in a lifetime Thurman shows how to recognize the destructiveness of anger and understand its workings and how we can go from being a slave to anger to becoming a knight of patience We discover finally that when this deadliest emotion is transmuted by wisdom it can become the most powerful force in freeing us from human suffering Drawing on the time tested wisdom of Buddhism Robert A F Thurman ranges from the individual struggle with anger to global crises spurred by dogmatic ideologies religious fanaticism and racial prejudice He offers a path of calm understanding in a time of terrorism and war     Holy Matrimony Steven Waterhouse,2006     Never, Never Give Up Jack Hartman,1994     Lectura Dantis Tibor Wlassics,1990     The Princeton Theological Review ,1918 Includes section Reviews of recent literature     Our Quest for Happiness: for the junior year: the ark and the dove ,1957
