Ensor Ovid, Publius Ovidius Naso, 1901 The Athenaeum, 1906 The Metamorphoses of Ovid, book 1, ed. by E. Latin for the New Millennium: Level 2: Student Textbook Milena Minkova, Terence Tunberg, 2009-06-01

This complete introductory course to the Latin language suitable for both high school and college students consists of two volumes each accompanied by a teacher's manual and students workbooks. The strategy employed for teaching and learning incorporates the best of both the reading approach and the more abstract grammatical method. The choice of vocabulary in each chapter reflects ancient authors commonly studied for the AP Latin examinations. There are exercises designed for oral use as well as a substantial core of more conventional exercises in each chapter. The readings, pictures, and supplementary inserts on cultural information illuminate Roman life, civilization, Roman history, and mythology as well as the continuing use of Latin after antiquity and its vigorous literary tradition in such periods as the Middle Ages and Renaissance. Each chapter also includes derivatives, the influence of Latin vocabulary on English, and selected proverbs or common Latin sayings. Special Features: the best of the reading approach and the grammar translation approach; one Latin passage in each chapter that is adapted from post-antique Latin literature; each chapter contains an unadapted selection of classical Latin from Nepos; Life of Atticus text ends with ten additional unadapted selections from the Life of Atticus for students' transition to authors' courses; Nepos selections accompanied by facing notes and vocabulary; clear, concise grammatical explanations; abundant exercises, both Latin to English and English to Latin; optional oral exercises; vocabulary geared to upper-level literature and AP syllabi; review unit for every three chapters; derivative and proverb studies; background essays on daily life and the culture of the post-ancient world; essays on the heroes of classical mythology; essays connecting the ancient, post-ancient, and modern worlds, written by university scholars; plentiful, full-color illustrations complement the Latin text of each chapter; study tips for students; three maps custom-made for Latin for the New Millennium; timeline of historical and literary events; Latin for the New Millennium Companion Website; this website has additional information about Latin for the New Millennium, including a Teachers' Lounge. The Teachers' Lounge is a forum for teachers using and interested in using Latin for the New Millennium series textbooks, workbooks, and enrichment texts.

El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print, 1996 R. R. Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1996-02 Performing Desire Elizabeth Eva Leach, Jonathan Morton, 2025-06-15

Performing Desire examines the intellectual and philosophical complexity of a monument of medieval literature, the mid-thirteenth-century Bestiaire d'amours of Richard de Fournival. Although the Bestiaire was recognized in its time as significant, as evinced by numerous surviving manuscript copies and its influence on other literary works, modern scholarship has tended to neglect it. Performing Desire remedies this omission by detailing the contributions of the Bestiaire to medieval literature and thought. Attending to the phenomenology, psychology, and philosophy of Fournival's Bestiaire, Elizabeth Eva Leach and Jonathan Morton reconsider the work as a literary experiment that explores erotic desire.

and the construction of a self Leach and Morton further show that the Bestiaire is as much a meditation on sound and performance as it is a study of desire Synthesizing methods from musicology literary studies and manuscript studies Leach and Morton consider the complex and hybridized workings of text image sound and cues for performance in the surviving manuscripts of the Bestiaire Through their analysis Leach and Morton find that the distinctive aspect of the Bestiaire s philosophical method is its self conscious status as a performance between the oral and the literary the voice and the page It is this aspect they contend that left such a mark on the medieval European tradition of philosophical fiction In Performing Desire Richard de Fournival s hybrid text emerges as one of the most philosophically sophisticated and important works of medieval literature not only in French but in any language Books in Print ,1962 Medieval and Renaissance
