Mining Success Keys Achieving Dream:

Mining for Success Kelissa Bass,2015-12-05 Kelissa Bass is making it very clear that her motivation to succeed is by focusing on your why and not the how Feeling like a victim was never a friend to her Changing the story you tell yourself is key while working to inspire others to do the same Kelissa wrote Mining for Success because she had the personal experience of actually having to use the 7 keys and found that they worked and was moved to share what those keys were with others who may be finding it hard to get results Surprised at how quick the results started happening in her life She only could credit the hard work of changing her mental dialogue even during the tough times Dreams, Gender, and

Artisanal Mining in Papua New Guinea Dan Moretti,2025-10-01 Up to 200 000 Melanesian men women and children work as artisanal miners yet their lifeworlds are seriously under researched This ethnography of a multigenerational community of migrant miners in Papua New Guinea shows that dreaming mediates how they experience and manage gold mining Men argue that they alone can mine successfully by forming oneiric marriage bonds with the spirits of the land Women draw on their own dream experience to challenge this asserting their equal capacity to marry spirits and their right to mine For women and men alike dreams provide legitimations of agency and commentaries on mutual dependencies and moral obligations in the domestic domain and between humans and nonhumans Don't Give Up! You Are Stronger

Than You Think Canaan Mash,2015-10-21 It s not always going to be easy to reach our dreams in life The loftier the dream the more challenging the path Often times it seems impossible The road to long term success is seldom a straight line It s not where you start in life it s where you end up that counts Many times we have all felt like quitting giving up throwing in the towel Failure isn t something many of us can handle gracefully It s a common human condition but we re somehow always surprised when it happens to us Believe In Your Dream Don t sell yourself short You are stronger than you think You are made of sterner stuff One little setback is not enough to stop you This book challenges readers to realise that every insult every disappointment every pain and every hurt that breaks your heart is fuel for your inner fire Medals are given to overcomers Honours are bestowed on champions Readers will find crucial strategies on dealing with and overcoming the inevitable setbacks of life My Country, Mine Country Benedict Scambary,2013-05-01 Agreements between the mining industry and Indigenous people are not creating sustainable economic futures for Indigenous people and this demands consideration of alternate forms of economic engagement in order to realise such futures Within the context of three mining agreements in north Australia this study considers Indigenous livelihood aspirations and their intersection with sustainable development agendas The three agreements are the Yandi Land Use Agreement in the Central Pilbara in Western Australia the Ranger Uranium Mine Agreement in the Kakadu region of the Northern Territory and the Gulf Communities Agreement in relation to the Century zinc mine in the southern Gulf of Carpentaria in Queensland Recent shifts in Indigenous policy in Australia seek to de emphasise the cultural behaviour or imperatives of Indigenous people in undertaking economic action in favour of a mainstream conventional approach to economic development Concepts of value identity and community are key elements in the tension between culture and economics that exists in the Indigenous policy environment Whilst significant diversity exists within the Indigenous polity Indigenous aspirations for the future typically emphasise a desire for alternate forms of economic engagement that combine elements of the mainstream economy with the maintenance and enhancement of Indigenous institutions and livelihood activities Such aspirations reflect ongoing and dynamic responses to modernity and typically concern the interrelated issues of access to and management of country the maintenance of Indigenous institutions associated with family and kin access to resources such as cash and vehicles the establishment of robust representative organisations and are integrally linked to the derivation of both symbolic and economic value of livelihood pursuits

Embracing Failure: Your Key to Success Lennox Cornwall, 2017-05-28

Embracing Failure Your Key to Success shows how failure is truly an opportunity and not the final nail in your coffin of hope In this new perspective the analysis of what constitutes success aligns perfectly with Earl Nightingale s proposition that success is the progressive realization of a worthy ideal Using this truer more worthwhile meaning for failure allows you to pursue success to its limits The author acknowledges that there is nothing new to creating success a worthy ideal vision plans hard work building an effective team persistence and character are certainly still required and Embracing Failure Your Key to Success is explicit about these But like the golfer who changes his grip before winning a dearly sought after first Major championship sometimes you need to see things a little differently to finally make that yearned for breakthrough to your own success Herein lies the true value of the material contained in Embracing Failure Your Key to Success Supporting the empowering acronym failure as a Fruitful And Informative Lesson Urging Renewed Effort the author cleverly uses illustrations and his own poetry before each chapter These make for an enlightening preview of the coming chapter The effect on your attention is as much entertaining as it is illuminating ensuring you get the chapter's intended message SA Mining ,2005
