Mason, 2025-02-17 Zen Meaning and Craft in Jane Hirshfield's Poetry Heartshoots is the first scholarly volume to be dedicated to the large body of work produced by North American Zen poet Jane Hirshfield The volume is co-authored by a Zen Buddhist scholar and a poetry scholar who are both practising poets Its five chapters cover format and structure three fruitful approaches to the poetry Zen and the problem of desire Hirshfield's response to the more than human world and her warnings to humanity not to ignore the ecological crisis belonging loss and the solace of poetry The book portrays poetry as a heartshoot that can bridge the artificial divide between external and internal worlds and can draw forth compassion as well as delight In Hirshfield's hands it mobilises the considerable power of cognitive verbal and semantic surprise to lead the reader gently to new insights about the connectedness of all that is Longing and Letting Go Holly Hillgardner, 2017 Can we love God and others without our desires eclipsing the very beauty integrity and diversity toward which we are drawn that is can we love without trying to possess Spanning centuries continents and religious traditions Longing and Letting Go looks to Christian writer Hadewijch and Hindu songstress Mirabai to explore their inextricable practices of longing and letting go and more particularly the interreligious possibilities of passionate non-attachment for an interconnected pluralistic world The Devotional Poems of Mirabai Mīrābāī, 1973 Comparing Faithfully Michelle Voss, 2016-09-01 Every generation of theologians must respond to its context by rearticulating the central tenets of the faith Interreligious comparison has been integral to this process from the start of the Christian tradition and is especially salient today The emerging field of comparative theology in which close study of another religious tradition yields new questions and categories for theological reflection in the scholar's home tradition embodies the ecumenical spirit of this moment This discipline has the potential to enrich systematic theology and by extension theological education at its foundations The essays in Comparing Faithfully demonstrate that engagement with religious diversity need not be an afterthought in the study of Christian systematic theology rather it can be a way into systematic theological thinking Each section invites students to test theological categories to consider Christian doctrine in relation to specific comparisons and to take up comparative study in their own contexts This resource for pastors and theology students reconsiders five central doctrines of the Christian faith in light of focused interreligious investigations The dialogical format of the book builds conversation about the doctrine of God theodicy humanity Christology and soteriology Its comparative essays span examples from Hindu Buddhist Jewish Muslim Jain and Confucian traditions as well as indigenous Aztec theology and contemporary spiritual but not religious thought to offer exciting new perspectives on Christian doctrine

The Kabir Book Kabir, 1977 Few major achievements of world literature are as little known to Americans as the great ecstatic poetry of the Hindus and Sufis as exemplified by the work of the 15th century master Kabir Irreverent while being intensely religious Kabir seems incredibly playful in his taunting of the sacred dogmas of his time to readers accustomed to the solemnity and ideological fidelity of most Western religious poems Kabir has been translated into English only once before by Rabindranath Tagore and Evelyn Underhill Unfortunately Tagore s Victorian English was simply not equal to Kabir s directness spontaneity and irreverent humor Working from the Tagore Underhill translation Bly has done much more than retranslate into American diction A noted poet himself he has breathed new life into the work of a fascinating poet From back cover
